What do you guys think?
Is it valid that they are going to attack Iran.

I think it is because the crap the president of that country talks.. and he is making missiles that can reach far into Europe.
Israel easy and he said that Israel will be wiped of the map.

I think that for once the world and the UN will say, hey doing inspections for the next 20 years isnt going to work. Maybe we should....act....

My bet, this ends up with UN action or Israeli action.

At least Iran won't have nuclear weapons for a long time.

But then again, Iraq wouldn't have either, but that didn't stop the Bush administration.

I point to Lybia,

UN "After years of inspections, we think they have no nuclear program."

US "OMFG you damn stupid moron, look Lybia, give up your weapons or we will kick the crap out of you."

Lybia hands over its nuclear weapons to US from under the table
