I want a game that is, or is like Command & Conquer, for the Pocket PC, seeing as I recently aquired one. I know about Battlefield, but it doesn't look that interesting.(On a semi-related note, check out my Brotherhood of Nod "My Today" theme.)

Edit: My Brotherhood of Nod Pocket PC(Windows Mobile 2002/2003/CE) theme is now attached. It took all of, like...five minutes to make.

You WILL link to that theme. Your survival depends on it.

I've been hunting for apps that will run on my handheld, as well- I've got a Dell Axim x50. They're handy little gizmos, but I do wish they came with a few more options for entertainment and browsing...

Done. It's up in the first post for anyone to download. I forget where the Renegade wallpaper came from. Probably that site someone linked a while back.

Erm, stab in the dark, but can that thing run flash? There is a C&C Flash game around somewhere. It's in Beta though and still needs work.
