Yeah, this morning EU tried to have some deal with IRAN to stop the nuclear activities and get the UN control back in IRAN.

The morons refused.

Maybe they would prefer that EU and USA bomb their country and population to stone age?

I feel bombs coming on IRAN very soon...

To be totally honest, when you have so many people saying you're an assclown... I think you ought to - at THE VERY LEAST - consider the possibility that you are an assclown and that nobody wants to read what you write. That would, though, explain why you have so few replies to your threads nowadays. I think the ignore function was being used to its full potential.

Maybe I should join in on the No SuperFlyingEngis club, too!

It's quite simple. Here are three VERY simple steps to joining the club:

1. Go here: http://www.renegadeforums.com/index.php?t=ignore\_list
2. Where it says "Add Ignoramus", type "SuperFlyingEngi"
3. Press the "Add" button.

There, three simple steps to join the club.

If you've been online for more than six months, you should have the ability to type proper English fast enough to rival the typing "skills" of a veteran of "intarnat speak" such as yourself. In most, probably all, cases: I can type faster than you and not look like I didn't pass the fifth grade in the process.

Actually I type very, very fast, but most of the time I don't give a fuck about replacing "you" with "u" and all that shit. The only time in which I usually type properly is on forums. Pretty sad how you've nothing negative to say about me except for the fact that I frequently find ways to type faster, lol.

I'm pretty sure if everyone ignored SFE, these political forums would be quite boring. SFE comes up with some great counter-arguments, and just because this is a mostly conservative forum, almost everyone disagrees with him. As is the nature with online political debate, you now are degrading yourselves to flinging your own poop at him rather than attack him with actual, well thought out, arguments.

Congrats.
