That's nothing special I think some people on NoN00bs have gotten like over 250 within an hour and dieing like between 1-5 times. Though it's not bad for a 8 player game. It wouldn't work if you played someone skilled though.

There are no real snipers in Renegade, and if there actually were... Using textures wouldn't disqualify you from being called good.

Real players don't use n00bjets or show off kill counts from marathon servers.

Not saying it is the best but I think my overall KvD is not too bad.
