...I am about to go hunting for an alternate reticle that another player (I will not say his name) spoke of. He said that RenGuard did not do anything about it, and that it is more or less for looks. It sounded cool, so I want to get it as well. IF I download it, is it against Renguard and will I be banned? Or should I just not download it? Thanks.

[Hmm, I may have posted in the wrong subforum again, but this is the only one I saw as appropriate. Please transfer it if necessary. Thanks.]

I meant targeting reticle. Might give an unfair advantage. Or totally throw off my aim. You sure I'm allowed?

yes, reticles, including clearscopes, are allowed, whether or not clearscopes specifically is allowed by different servers is something else entirely

Thanks. I'll try it out later. It would be cool if I could get an Irken reticle (aliens in Invader Zim series use cool purple and black targeting reticles). I plan to only go on n00bstories though. Everywhere else I've been SUCKS.

Oh. And feel free to lock this post. I'll probably be too busy to check back on it.

Nah. I just went to a skinner site. Cool stuff, but mostly too flashy. I used one of the more practical targeting reticles, but the game itself probably wouldn't look better with skins. Skins in general are kind of dorky. :\

EDIT: Heh, until I found this...

It freakin ROCKS!
