If you dont see any servers when you login this means your password is wrong usually.

Or 2) you have objects.ddb in your renegade\data folder

^^ you cant click "accept" when invited and you cant join a game from the buddy list, its a bug in XWIS that stops it from happening. you join a supposed chatroom of the server that dont seem to work. joining a game like this did work with WOL.

It's ment to do this: log in with a correct username and password and/or a correct serial and you will not havet his problem.
