So you're saying that because he got 4 kills with a pistol, he was justly banned?

In that screenshot? No. Close, but no. The pistol's range is alot farther than you might expect. And actually, I might be wrong about it even being close, I haven't played in awhile.

Where are the two players he killed after the one laying dead here? Can't seem them on the ss and he's looking at this guy. Maybe they are behind him? Seems bizar, no?

At first glance it looked like he was a sniper, and getting a kill with each bullet in the clip is far from impossible.

But after seeing the points(would of helped more if that part was expanded), and the game time(assuming it's a 30 minute game), it does look pretty bad for him.

He was blowing up the harvester in 1 shot to.

Also all those kills happen in a 10 second timeframe.

And I think you're just wanting to be a dipshit. If you want to get into a flame war, tell me and I'll ignore you.

Ever think they were behind the wall to the camera? Or maybe just off screen? Or maybe, just maybe, he used his rifle ammo on them, and was just skilled/lucky enough to get a bunch of headshots? I'll admit it's not likely, but it is possible. It's 100% possible. I've seen it happen. I've been a victim of it. And the corpse fade time is quick, so corpses can fade out before screenshots are taken.

It'd ONLY be possible if all 4 of those players were running around with about 10-25 HP left, and he just happened to headshot each and every one of them with a PISTOL (or even a rifle). That is damn near impossible without cheats. We can only assume that at most only one person was running around with low health. Since they WERE in the GDI base when they died, I would say it's safe to assume they were all full health. This making your theory that it's 100% possible to kill 4 people with a pistol (in the amount of time given in the SS) completely false.

No no, it's possible with all 4 of them, 5 if you count after the ban which could've been C4 like three of the kills might've been, GDI rifles do 20 damage per shot, yes? Or is it 10 per shot and 20 per headshot? Either way, in ten seconds time, it is possible with a GDI rifle to kill 3 people with headshots, wound another, and finish him off with the pistol. And how do you know that those people hadn't been idiots and ran straight towards him without moving to the side at all? There are so many factors that could've come into play here that it's completely possible.

However, the Harvester with one hit thing, unless it's life was down THAT low, does mark him. I'm not saying he wasn't cheating, I'm saying that it is completely possible for him to do that.

There's no way that the guy ain't cheating. Why else would someone post a screenshot of it. To get 5 kills with a pistol in a short time frame is near impossible. Pretty obvious the guy is cheating. It may be possible to do what he did in that time frame, but that isn't the case. Gdi rifles do 25 per headshot I think, pistols do 50 i know that for a fact.

Nod Rifles do 25 per headshot. GDI do 35. You're right in that pistols do 50 per headshot.

Is he cheating? Maybe. I can't tell from just a screenshot.

Although, I find that it's much easier to find cheaters based on what they typed rather than what they do. If they spam "I don't cheat! !forcerg me!" far too many times, they might be cheating. If they do a "!showmods or equivilent shortly after connecting, they're probably cheating.

You keep speculating things that aren't even shown in the SS. Where is there any smoke from this C4 in the ss? It'd still be lingering around if there were one. Also, he is the minigunner holding a pistol in the SS ... WAY to far away to be throwing any effective C4. Not to mention, the person who banned him was in IRC, where most bots these days show kill messages, usually showing what the player was killed by. Having said that... not one person said on the SS that it was C4 that got them. Including the person who died in the SS that is posting it. Even you yourself said he is holding a pistol in the SS.

And it's highly unlikely, almost impossible for those 4-5 players running around their base with that low of health to make it even remotely possible that this player can kill 4-5 players with a pistol in 10 seconds or less. Which is what they would have had to have been doing for this to even be possible. There is no way he could have killed 4-5 players (most from full health) with neither a rifle OR a pistol in 10 seconds or less. If they are running in a straight line or not.

It's already been proven that your theory is wrong... So stop trying to push it.

I've gone over it atleast 30 times in my head, putting various time frames into the equation to include C4's 30 second fuse... It's impossible. To use C4 in that manner, it would have to take you 45 seconds to get over there, and if you stood there for however long it takes the C4 to go off, where that guy's standing, that leaves a 7 second time frame where anything could happen to bump the kill messages. And, yes, it is impossible to get that lucky to kill 4(or 5) people that quickly with any weapon. So, yeah, you got me. Statement retracted.

Yes, a dictionary helps you write perfect English sentences both grammar and vocabulary-wise. Also the fact everyone actually makes an effort in speaking English doesn't make the slightest impression on you?

I never said that. Not once did I ever say that. If you read my entire post, I made referances to people coming over from other countries and not knowing our language. It's only smart to learn a country's language before coming to it if you're going to visit. America isn't as bad about having to know our language, but it's still smart nonetheless. If you don't know our language, you're going to suffer for it, like I said.

First of all, let me say that it pains me to be defending Goztow.

Now down to business. Goztow's first language is not English. He has, however, evidently put a lot of time into learning it, since he speaks it as well as almost anyone else on this forum. If he makes an occasional mistake, it is not the end of the world. It's not as though you can't understand what he is trying to say. After all, English is one of the hardest languages to learn. Perhaps those of us without a vendetta against him (i.e. if you are not DJM) could give him a break.

P.S. It's "references," hypocrite.

I can understand that.

I know his first language isn't English, though what it is I still can't figure out, since he said it wasn't Russian like I thought. I also know how difficult it is to learn, you can tell I have difficulty spelling sentence, sentence wtf ever, and words that sound like they have an a in them, but don't. And nobody ever said it was the end of the world. Even DJM understands this.

True, we can understand him quite well, unlike 90% of everyone else who frequents forums, and really DJM doesn't have a vendetta against him, to my knowledge, he's just turned into a mini-AircraftKiller, correcting everyone's spelling and/or grammar mistakes. More often than not, it's the your/you're correction he does.

Though I will admit I've seen him lash out at Goztow for no apperant reason, you yourself have to admit that Goztow is a jackass alot of the time, even if he doesn't know it.

Arg, a friend of mine is pressuring me to play Halo, I'll have to cut this short.

P.S. Spellchecker. :p

Edit: How did I even get into this arguement, and how did it shift from a cheater to English?

DJM and me have some other unpleasant meetings in the past where you aren't aware of, I'm not sure if they were a cause or a consequence of things on these forums, probably both. As far as I'm aware, he decided one day he didn't like me and voila.

My mother tongue is Dutch, I also speak perfectly French, decent English (I hope) and some German. Now you know .

Rofl, Roof Gnomes...

I swear someone guessed Dutch at one point and you said no...
