I was just banned from Renguard for bypassing it. I'm not sure if it is permanent, but I would like to apologize. I was mad at the time, and not thinking straight, and I handled my situation in the wrong way. Hacking in Renegade is obviously not the way to deal with problems, and I realize how it only creates more problems for other people, which is very inconsiderate of me. I sincerely apologize for this, and I was hoping for a chance of getting unbanned. Please consider, I'm really sorry.

I really hope you guys will consider unbanning my friend here. He wasn't in a very good mood at the time and he had pressure from some of his friends, including me (which I am not very proud of...) But even though you guys who are affected for one game of Renegade, how do you think it feels to be banned forever, because of one cheating infraction? Please consider giving my friend another chance, he really does love this game and I love playing this game with him.

Just because he's so sorry for what he did, doesn't make it any better. He still ruined those games and what do you think it did to the people that got killed by him? They probably ended up getting mad aswell. I can get mad too, but you don't see me going on a cheating spree.

Besides, who says you're really sorry for what you did? I can't tell just by reading your post.

lol fragger at what point did you think you were going to get the ban lifted? Before or after your tried to evade it? Or perhaps I should call you hartib454? I guess after you changed your IP twice and that didn't work you went with the feel sorry for my stupid ass post. You cheated on n00bstories, jelly, n00bless, and BC what did you think was going to happen? Do you think us Admins don't talk? Not only are you banned from RG but your dumbass is banned from some of the most popular servers. By now you can bet that your 3 IPs have been passed around and added to more ban lists. Have fun playing this shit servers with out RG! YOu will have plenty of time to think about it now. Now if you will excuse us we have better things to do.

The reasons why people cheat are getting funnier and funnier every day.
- I was mad(that is a new one!)

- My brother got hacked
- I got hacked
- It was my dog

I wonder what they will come up with next

Anyway, how can you ban someone if they change their IP address and Nick name?

Also cheated on The KOSs2 - server btw. He just did all servers with people on. I don't see how this could be a "revenge" or "bad mood" thing as he just continued until he got banned everywhere, then tried to bypass his bans and after nothing worked, came for teh "beg for sorry"-post.

I got an idea: throw away your copy of Renegade. Cary the consequences of your retarded actions.

Do you think that if you kill someone in real life because you are mad, that you wouldn't have go to jail? I think not. Not thinking is no excuse at all. Maybe now at least you have learned that you MUST ALWAYS think before you do shit or face the consequences.

What good is the anti-cheat when you bypass it? If you're going to abuse the security RenGuard provides, meaning that people shouldn't think you're cheating while you're using it, then you're not going to be allowed to use it anymore.

People actually pay money out of their own pockets so that you could use the service. Not to mention the various people and communities that donate their money to help keep RenGuard going. So not only were you ruining games for 100s of people, you were wasting their money as well. Why should your abuse be tolerated?

You are a dumbass. Plain and simple. First you get "mad" and cheat. You then are banned, and you try to evade it. Once you try and evade it, you come here to apologize to get the ban lifted. Now you're insulting the program and trying to chastize US for using it? If I remember correctly, this thread is about YOU trying to be unbanned from this "petiful" program.

The whole point of banning you is to keep you off of quality servers. Sure, you can still play the game on other servers, but you'll be playing with other cheaters. The whole advantage of RenGuard is to know that you're playing in a server where it's free from cheaters.

Yeah but other people do it and dont get caught yet since I am not as "trashy" as other people I get banned because I am a innocent person YES i do agree i cheated I am sorry for doing this I like Renegade I did bypass it but only because I saw other people doing it and saying how they were doing it so i copied what they were doing I didn't really want to do it in the first place if i haven't seen other people doing it. I just did it to see what would happen and since I was mad and pressured at the time I didn't have a clear mind. I am sorry for whatever "money" was wasted or howmany "games" I ruined. I won't do it again in fact if you want to see how NOT cheating I am why don't you play a few games with me? LISTEN. In the first place I liked renguard then This guy called a1h told me how to bypass from there he told me how and since i saw on this cheat site not saying people said they bypassed renguard so I said to myself what would it be like if i bypassed renguard without thinking consequences I was banned then now I am thinking really I didn't want to bypass but a1h said he knew how I didnt even knew how to bypass until he told me how Crimson if you are listening I didn't know how to bypass until this guy called a1h told me how If i didnt met him I probably wouldn't have bypassed I am sorry I wont do again . I already blocked him anyway. Just please let me play again. I find that cheating itself is gay and ruins peoples game. You got banned because you cheated, not because you're not as "trashy".

If you didn't really want to do it, then why did you do it?

If Crimson went banning everyone "to get richer", no one would use RenGuard. No one wants to pay $30 for something they didn't do. Crimson & friends pay much more to keep RenGuard running that what they get in donations.

1. How can we believe you?

2. How can we know that if you get unbanned, you won't cheat again?

3. Being mad when you do something doesn't make it right.

4. If you only did it because other people were doing it, and YOU were the one that got banned, then how can you call THEM your friends? If they're laughing at you, then why don't you have the last laugh and come up with some proof of them cheating with RenGuard so that they can be banned too? There would be plenty of laughs at them.

5. Alright, I forgive ya... but my Tommy Gun don't!

Seriously, you got caught and pwned. Stop whining about it.

Let's look at the facts for a moment:

1. You cheated and got banned.

2. You tried to bypass RenGuard

3. You are whining, bitching, and complaining about the ban

We can all agree on this, right? Right.

What makes you think that just by "apologizing" for being "mad" that the listed facts are just going to disappear and all will be well? You cheated, and then you tried to bypass the system. Let's try and use a real life type situation. Say you get arrested because you did something dumb. You then tried to escape from prison, but you were caught. Then you try to apologize to the warden and expect him to set you free because you apologized for your original crime. What warden, in their right mind, would let you free? Not one that wants to keep his job.

Did I say we were talking about jail? I gave an ANALOGY. It's pretty much the same moral equivelant. Anybody in their right mind is not going to just let you off the hook.

Even if you were unbanned, who is going to trust that you're not going to cheat again, anyways? Not to mention a lot of servers have you banned, and just being unbanned from RenGuard will still mean you're banned from most servers.

More or less what I'm trying to say is that you're wasting your time and energy. The only thing you are doing now is giving us entertainment.

I work in a white collar job. I don't work on the weekends, so I can afford to sit on my ass all day and laugh at children like you who claim this moral highground simply because they apologize for their wrongdoings. Congratulations.

j_ball430 just drop it. Insulting him just because he cheated will not solve anything.

Here is general logic: One a cheater, allways cheater. Cheating is as serious offence as stealing. If you steal once, people will allways call you thief. If you cheat once, people will allways call you cheater. This is how the world works and allways will.

MAYBE they will unban you when 1.04 comes out, maybe.

In the mean time, there are other games made by EA that need more cheaters. good luck.

Terminator 101j_ball430 just drop it. Insulting him just because he cheated will not solve anything. I'm just calling him out for what he is. He's an immature little 'moral highground' playing kid. He's trying to act like he's above all of us morally simply because he apologizes, and we don't approve of that.

He's also clearly an idiot. I have yet to see how I've been false in any of my posts.

I'm calling you an idiot because you clearly exhibit the qualities of such.

I don't see how my responses make you side tracked from RA2. Renegade has nothing to do with RA2. You choose to read my replies. If you think my posts are bothersome to your RA2, put me on your ignore list or stop paying attention to these forums. It's that simple.

The ban is definitely not going away any time soon.

For those of you who care, his new IP, so far, is: 66.176.191.84 -- ban at will.

Aww.. I take a few days off for Oblivion, and THIS is what I miss?

Hilarious. Simply hilarious.
