Yeah well im a really old vet of this game. I lost the Cds and crap and wanted to come back so i downloaded and installed it from a website. It didn't prompt me for a cd- ket and everytime i click Multiplayer i get this message. "Your installed version of westwood online is incompatible with this product. Please reinstall westwood online component." I found out that WOL doesnt work anymore so I tired to find where to download the new XWIS thing but i can't find anything. Can someone please help me i don't know what the problem is.

Buy the CD's and you will get what you need to play. Don't be cheap, it's a very inexpensive game.

(Or learn to take better care of your CD's)

Go to Best Buy and find a copy. It's only $5-10 now, if they still have old copies in inventory. Otherwise, see if they still have an y copies of The Command & Conquer Collection, which should be cheaper than TFD ($19.99 at BestBuy.com), since it's got less games (only Tiberian Sun + Firestorm, RA2 + Yuri, Renegade).
