1. WOL had a ranking system. When you just started playing, u got no rank and u got one after a couple of games. Until then you were considered a newbie and got the 'recruit' tag. Now that Xwis has no ladder, everyone with a new account is a newbie cause he cannot get ladder points
2. the star only had to be at your name to show who you are but there's a bug there

I've always sure that the "Recruit" tag means that it is that person's first our second game in the server..
