i play on sod gaming ctf, do think the acco's are n00bish. i do, because it takes(normally) another acco to kill one. and if the player is experienced he is invincible. i only use one to kil accos camping in my base.

CTF is great but i have to say that the sod one sucks, the accos are to invincible.I usually play on ren-archive crazy ctf.The hotwires and technicians are like 5000,and have god guns but they aren't invincible any unit can kill them lol.

I don't think they did, although I haven't played in that server for a week so I might be wrong. They did make the aco slightly more expensive though.
