Well I could tell you but.... They could kick me for telling you.... (YOU HAVE TO JOIN A SECRET FAN CLUB called the rennies they give you special gun that you shoot into the MCT and it converts it to yours.

ugh.... ffs, he posted a genuine question....

if this is the mission that i think your talking about, to capture the obelisk you have to snipe all the engineers running down below towards the obelisk

No, no no. You're thinking of the wrong one, Nightma. You snipe all the engineers to get the secondary objective and get the armor-up medal, and that's two missions earlier than the one he's asking about.

I don't know how you capture the oblisk. It's so much easier just to blow it up...

I wondered about that too. After careful (?) research on the matter, I determined that there's no way to do this. You don't have a repair gun and the engineers don't drop any. Best thing to do is to blow it up with the tank airdropped to you.

HOWEVER, I have not, in the course of the campaign, completed the secondary "Snipe the Engineers" mission and then done the level with the Obelisk, so I don't know if this makes a difference or not.

It makes none, SpyGuy, although if you don't snipe the engineers, you miss out on an Armor-Upgrade medal, which are always nice to have.

I'm working on a walkthrough for the campaign on Commando difficulty on <http://www.RenegadeWiki.com>, but I havn't had much spare time lately, then I lost all my saves and I'm too lazy to play through the whole thing again.

If anybody finds out, I'd love to know the way to capture to oblisk. I'll put it in there and give credit and what-not...

I've been checking on that every so often. Good luck doing Stomping on Holy Ground on Commando. What a bitch.

I remember reading somewhere - a strategy guide maybe? - that you have to walk up to the MCT and "use" it to capture the Obelisk. No guarantees this is accurate.

I have a strange compulsion to destroy everything Nod I see instead of focusing on the objectives, so I don't do as well on Commando.

I think I've tried "using" the MCT before and I don't think it did anything. I might try again and double-check.

I also got a guide that says there's an alternate ending for Tiberian Sun's GDI campaign, but I think they were confused with the original.

To get the alt ending in TS you gotta blow up the temple of nod with the Ion Cannon. Atleast thats what I herd.
