This is a reserved slots system for Renegade. if the game is "full" then moderators or people who have been added to the temporary mod list will be able to join the last slots in the game.

e.g.

Server admins has 4 slots reserved.

Only people with access can join the last 4 slots, other users will get denied to the game.

PS: I hate writing english, so my explanation sucks. Hopefully my readme is easier to understand.

And to Silent_Kane, you are featured in the readme.
