1. The Renegade ladder is down, doesn't give out any points, that's why in-game all new players keep the recruit-tag. It is annoying indd but cannot be helped by yourself. My solution to this would be for Xwis to just give everyone a couple of points, just enough to have the tag dissapear.
 2. Somr clans have their serevr where you can play on. be happy for this: they pay a lot of money for this
 3. To join a clan, apply on their forums.
