right, ive created a server side mod in level edit, ive put it on my server.

i'll load my server up, perfectly fine, the server will load the level up perfectly, but a few seconds after i join the game to test it out, the server restarts itself.

this happens to me, but i am in a blue place and keep falling, then restart, and so on, but i have to exit the program and use task manager to exit it as when it repeats the menu will dissappear, and it happens every 2 secs.

i think the blue would just be level without the terrain.

i have a strange feeling its about generating sectors twice, but i dont really know

Did you use then other scripts?
and in that level, didn't you get a medium tank?
and the pt thingy, what did you all change?
did you put in all files in your FDS?

no, there are no tanks in it, it does use poke scripts, and all the files(the objects.aow and M01.1dd) are in the right place.

No, I can put them all in, and works fine
I guess you can do 2 things:
1. rebuild the file
2. upload the file (so we can check and maybe find something)

the .1dd will be attached to this post then

File Attachments

1) M01.1dd, downloaded 55 times

Let me see...

Yes, it crashes, my FDS and Renegade

I cant say anything with this, srly, only that it doesn't work

Check your map again, Remove things that could be it

(I made M03 seversided once and when I made the airstrip it crashed, once I removed it it worked again, I coul'n'd believe that that was the cause but it was)
