Does renegade support chinese/japanese/korean?

If so, how do the edit boxes (where you type stuff in) work?

i have no idea if it does support the languages... but there is an option where it says 'Do not show Asian chat language'

so i assume it may have something of the like?

It should support them, I've seen some Renegade pictures in what I think was Chinese.

Courtesy of Adad, found it from the Pits forums.

Thanks, thats exactly what I wanted to see. That box with the scroll bar that lets you pick the chinese characters must be the mysterious IMECandidateCtrl (all I know is its name and nothing else)

Can someone with the japanese/korean/chinese renegade open regedit and post the values of HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINE\SOFTWARE\Westwood\Renegade\SKU and HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINE\SOFTWARE\Westwood\Renegade\Language?

I am trying to make my renegade think its chinese/japanese/korean so I can test some crap.

Found a copy of chinese renegade XD

And it was...erm, Joystick + Anime + Renegade? Nice...not.

So i did the usual manual reading and noticed that they messed up the weapons area much...anyways, here's the registry stuff (still not patched, too lazy):

[HKEY_LOCAL_MACHINE\Software\Westwood\Renegade]
```

"Language"=dword:00000010
```

```
"SKU"=dword:00000c0a
```

```
"Version"=dword:00010002

EDIT: o_O Why are there X_midtro stuff in the data folder? didn't knew that they existed...must be me forgetting stuff again, lol

EDIT 2: Erm, subtitle.ini? Saw one of those in RA2 chinese, also, btw, the scorpion's hunter displayed all of the dialogues including GDI's unrelated chatting, i'll maybe check it out tomorrow...i have to sleep, AM 0300 now

lol, never saw that, it's japanese btw, i actually can read some of the kanji stuff, it's either me, but i saw havoc's name as "Destroy House" or something, must be me, but well, at least their's is better, since there isn't any advertisement about C&C! (not to mention, dubs for the cutscenes, all we got are subtitles), and oh yeah, that GDI soldier got pwnt.
