I have been playing on line now for over a month. How do I ever get to see my rankings increase? I use renguard and I seem to do ok in a few of the games. When I log in I am still only a recruit and my info isn't ever updated. Please help...

The ladder is off for the moment. People are working on getting it back. I guess u'd have to wait something like one more month.

Alternatively since many servers run their own internal ladder, if you always play in the same server (assuming it has a ladder setup) you can get ranked on there. For example, the TK2 AOW and Snipe servers both have ladders, as does RenStation and many others
