This was brought to my attention by spoony:

All the details are here,
*removed link to post that mentions name of cheat*

For a long time i have always said that some {WG} members have been caught cheating, from what i saw personally, in a CW, another Clan brought it up, and a cw.cc member also belived so, and it turns out, the leader (jshultz/sm0ke0 has been caught using *cheat name removed*)

GG sm0ke, another great momemt for you and your clan, Im really starting to think you like making an idiot of yourself, andd wish for everyone here to hate you

I posted too quick. When he first made this, there wasn't any link. It just said "Link:"

Thanks anyways.

That was me who edited the posts. I removed mention of which cheat is was.

I know, it probably wont prevent those smart enough to know how to find it, but there's no need to show everyone what specifics to look for.

But it shows with good moderating, you can still outwit cheaters.

Sorry, you can't link to the clanwars post because it very clearly tells people what to search for to cheat.

I would suggest posting the actual post from the thread, with the name edited out.

Try to get this done in a public server of 20 players...

wow, that thread doesnt really mention anything new to anyone, people who want to cheat already know how to do it, and it kinda important to see this, especially if they belived sm0ke saying to them that "hes going clean"

Well, Logitechy managed it when GFUber was claiming De7 was using aimbot, tested him and as it should, proved GFUber is pretty stupid.

Note: This was in Jelly server.

So what stops people from going to clanwars to get it?

I watched the video and I have to say that spoony caught him red handed. So much for him changing his ways. Not that I am surprised. Guess that request to stop ragging on him on the forums is officially null and void.

The only reason I even knew how to test for it was because someone had tested me for this a few weeks ago in a public server. ^^

It took about 5 minutes. We did have a person who was stupid where he killed the guy testing me but the mod managed to get back there in no time... All I had to do was face away from him and type ": D" Without the space of course. If you actually read what the person is saying it shouldn't take very long at all. I mean how hard is it?

Face wall
(tester goes in back of the tested)
Don't move
Type ": D"

If he moves/turns to the nearest enemy head, you have yourself a cheater. It's not a very complicated task yet when told repeatedly what to do, smoke managed to make it seem difficult...
