I recently watched quite a few renegade video's on youtube and google videos and was shocked by the number of people using advantage skins

Even the simplest of things (like that spongebob timed c4, which is quite popular) gives players using a HUGE advantage. This big yellow thing sticking out (timed c4) is 100% impossible to not see, and other things like paintball gives the advantage to see where people are shooting you from easier. I was even more shocked to learn they allow suck skins on cw.cc,(and I saw the most advantaged skinning on a cw.cc ren video), and even a ren buddy of mine was using the spongebob one

The point is, whats the harm is making all the server in pure mode? the most harm would be to make sure its a 100% level playing feild for everyone, and for people like me who refuse to give themselves even the slightest advantage (I dont even use recticle skin, nothing), make it so they can actually play with people who's ramjet isn't yellow and disgustingly easy to see...

You make a good point. I bet all the good snipers use those bright skins that stick out. ./ They're too lazy to practice.

Pure servers were tried, but not enough people both ran RG and didn't use any skins so they died.

I agree, I dislike advantage skins, but I have things like a different ret + hud and some non-advantage skins that wouldn't be allowed in pure, I think most of the people here are the same.

I use that skin that turns the stealth texture into a Matrix-esque texture, it doesn't provide much of an advantage, but it looks cool.

Couldn't agree more with you, Trooprm, except for your last words. It's already hard enough to get people to run renguard, but getting them to not use their little pesky advantage skins is near to impossible.

Let me put this in capital letters to stress it: A GOOD SNIPER DOES NOT NEED BRIGHT SKINS.

For the heck of it: in the rules of our server it says that bright skins = unfair advantage = cheat. It's very hard to prove/test but at least it's clear for the people of good faith and people wanting to show off screenshots . We allow the spongebob c4 though, even though I have to agree with you. If it was a skin which made it harder to see, it wouldn't be popular at all .

Most of the servers allow bright skins. Though I think they're stupid, I think it's dumb to single out clanwars.cc(Do you even play in it or did you quit after being beat?) for allowing it when it's not like they're the only ones. and no, why would spongebob c4 be a Quote:HUGE advantage Where would this give you a significant advantage? If you can't see c4 on a mct you may need glasses. In fact, most of the time I play I can't remember a single time where timed c4 would have affected me or the game. If someone threw a timed c4 on my tank, (which they'd have to be an sbh to be able to do, and it would be a stupid thing to do..) I can see it perfectly fine. The only time I would have trouble seeing it is if it disappeared into the tank like it sometimes happens and it doesn't matter what color it is it's going to go invisible.

I don't fully agree on public servers because that's where you play for fun. (and fun could include make the game look nicer) but those bright skins and other stuff which you know for yourself give an advantage should be disabled both pub and cw. But for tournament typ games like clanwars though I don't play no more I think that all skins should be dissalowed + sounds. To make the game more fair for both sides.

Myself I don't use skins at all not even a reticle

Thats exactly why I brought up the cw.cc disscusion, supposibly they believe they are better than average people, but so would anybody be if the 500 sniper was purplish green, the ramjet was yellow, and etc. Even the matrix stealth thing, when you get close to a stealth, it makes it more visible and noticable And recticle, well we all know the default one is buggy and not accurate, so even switching that (or the hud) is an advantage De7, your defending the spongebob advantage c4? If im beaconing, I place the beacon, put my c4 behind, and 1 clip of my pistol to cover the c4...well, if the c4 is f'ing yellow, that idea is useless...

Anyway, I know some people will say that "its my game, and I like to make it look cooler", thats ok, untill it gets to a point to where your skins give you an unfair advantage against everyone else. I also know making all server pure mode is not ethical atm, but something along these lines could (should) be implemented

So, your making out the skins are making you lose? We aren't stopping you from personalising yours, so why are you trying to make out its bad?

I can aim just as well with any reticle, i just happen to prefer one made by someone else. I don't use advantage skins, as they good only on some maps and a hindrance on others on others.

Any good player would beat you without the skins anyway, alot of skins are there to make it look good more than anything.

Plus, your C4 argument is complete shit, you can hear it bleeping anyway, if you can't see it you need your eyes testing.

Note:Trooprm02 played 2 maps on cw.cc, lost both and made out it was the servers fault.

I think you're stupid if you think it helps you more than it hurts you. Besides, what are the chances of that affecting a game? 1 in 300? That's a rough estimate, and it probably wouldn't affect it if you could just LOOK. It's not hard to see, not even if there's bullet holes around it and the ground is matching/wall/whatever is matching. So even if it did, and it happened one out of 300 games, you said it's a SIGNIFICANT ADVANTAGE. I don't use skins, except a reticle which i've used for the past 2 years, it doesn't give me an advantage except that by now I'm just used to that one than I am with the custom reticle. Before that reticle, yes, I used the custom one, for about 2 and a half years. I did use skins, though it was a hotwire one and it wasn't a bright skin. Oh, and I also used a PT skin (Try saying that one's an advantage - I double-dare you, unless you think taking an extra second to absorb the PT is an advantage)

This is just a joke, right?

If the skin was such a thread to the integrity of the game (to the extent that it gave someone a 'cheat-like' advantage) ... why wouldn't RenGuard block it? I understand they don't know about every skin, recticle, etc. out there but they know about a LOT of modifications to the game and have not blocked them.

Some things are merely cosmetic while others enhance your gameplay.

If you were a tribe from the congo going up US special forces, do you think they'd be using the same technology? No, it'd be a slaughter. But what if that same technology was available for either side to use? Then it would be fair, right? Well that is exactly how I see Renegade. Some things like the "tracer pack" which help illuminate bullets and splash are extremely realistic and are used in real life. And since anyone can download it, its just a matter of finding it.

I played my first 2+ years of Renegade with absolutely NO skins or modifications whatsoever. None. Now I have a few that I would not play without, simply because I enjoy them. Does that make me less skilled? No. I honestly think I could own the same person with or without the skins.

Further, when brining clanwars.cc players into the argument, don't assume that skins have anything to do with the fact that they're better than a non-clanwars.cc player. These people live and breath DAILY competition. Whereas the rest of the community that is "clanning" may only play one or two clanwars a week. If that. Their experience is far higher, and many of them abandoned the community/pub servers because the competition became a joke. It has nothing to do with skins.

Back to the main topic, I think some skins do give you a better advantage ... but not a "cheat like" advantage that one should complain about. If there was a skin or modification that was not publically available and gave someone a clear advantage - that would be close to cheating in my eyes. So until the anticheats block these modifications/skins ... or until a server tells me I cannot use them there ... "PLAY BALL!"

Well.. most of the clan players would still own up any time with or without the skins so thats not really a valid argument, but I do think it will just give that little more that could give a bit of advantage. It's still how you look at it though because on some maps being on Nod or GDI can be an advantage. But if you play this game for fun pimping up your arty in blue for the heck of it then I don't see whats wrong with that. In tournament based/clan games and it was to be for serious/competitive play then skins/modified sounds should not be allowed just so both sides get the same stuff to start off with. But as long as most people on clanwars play for (fun and competitive wise) I don't think thats going to happen. And for some hardcore cw players with or without skins that's really not going to matter at all. Because tactics really do have nothing to do with skins.

Ok - what I skins used:

Stealth Tron Tank: The skin of UNSTEALTHED tank was tron - like. Kinda harder to see it than normal red-shoot-me-with-portable-ion-cannon.

X-com GDI skins - yes they are bright! But the only reason I have them - is what I like X-com:UFO - and it looked awesome on GDI NOD camouflage skin - makes NOD infantry to be darker - looked awesome - and didn't gave any advantages!

Tron Stank looked awesome - I mean - it finally had good colors - and it didn't annoy the eyes!

I think this sentence shows how much you know about the game. Anyone at the top level of play knows kills+deaths count are utterly insignificant compared to actually winning the game. Reminds me of when you said I was 1v1'ing wiggles (when the truth is I simply joined the server after he'd Anyway, he went in the hon, couldnt do anything about it, it went off and because I knew at that point I had already won (because of the end game beacon delay), I had left. 10 sec later, he went on msn to tell me end game beacon was off (althought im not even entirely sure if thats true), and i have a SS of just that.

You leaving a game does not consitute you winning it, pure mode is pointless for most people as it excludes people who don't use renguard or use skins etc, which is probably over 50% of the community.

Anyway, I know some people will say that "its my game, and I like to make it look cooler", thats ok, untill it gets to a point to where your skins give you an unfair advantage against everyone else.

It's my game and I will make it look how i want to...

Only problem is, I make the game an Unfair advantage AGAINST myself. I will show you some pictures of what I mean later, but all of my skins are darker, there is no "RED" in ANY of the Nod infantry and vehicals (yes even the Stank) infact they are dark brown to black cameo, and all of the GDI infantry and vehicals have a darker yellow / brownish Cameo to them, all fo the guns have the normal skins to them except some of them look different when I am holding them in 1st person, but in 3rd person they look normal.

I found myself getting a little too good at spotting vehicals so i did this, now, the Stealth effect is the only thing that has changed, so little though, its still a white effect, just some more lightining. But i made everything harder, i figured I could give myself a break on something lol wow troop, your fucking retarded. the beacon went off and before it did you said something gay like "ahaha GG", then when the game didnt end your like "WTF, what kind of gay server is this?" then i told you end game beacon was turned off and you said "i still win anyway", then you left. THEN, we talked on msn and you made a complete moron out of yourself, just as you are now.

ok, an image at 1024x800 would be 150kb . (about)

times 150 by 500 = 75000Kb = 75Mb

tar.bz2 it to get it to about 25Mb

il even write a php script to upload it to my server. it would take about 15 mins (max, unless you have a really slow upload speed) to upload. so it would take 16 mins of your time. im not paying for that.

Only the desperate noob clans @ clanwars.cc use the gay advantage skins like laser pistol and bright everything. And when they do show a ss and people notice, they usually get bitched at. To try and say everyone @ clanwars.cc is good because of advantage skins is like saying everyone who plays in a public server sucks because they don't use spongebob c4.

The fact is us clanwars.cc players are extremely good because of our experience, not because of some gay skin. We're against cheats/advantages just as much as you are, if not more.

Not sure where Troopshitter got the idea that the original reticle is 'buggy and inaccurate'. In fact me and IsItInYou (the best player in Ren) both use the original reticle. He plays in completely pure mode, and I only use a few skins myself (mostly tank bullet and splash skins).

I use the default rec too. I doubt many other players do tho (which is obvious after seeing everyone's SS). Anyway, it so obvious that other rec skins makes it more accurate (or atleast easeir to work with). I remember a whole topic somewhere on these forums talking about exactly that.

And my cw.cc comment was how those players there think they are good, BUT they are also BY FAR have the MOST skinned clients of anyone else

Thats definitely not true... for example, kill is the best player in renegade and has the best pistol i've ever seen (not to mention he's an amazing sniper, definitely in the top 3 of ren) and he uses the original reticle.

Um, rec is 1 thing, everything else is another. I have surfed the cw.cc forums some long time ago, and EVERY SINGLE SS i saw i was like wtf. I do know that some (if not alot) of public players also have very skined clients, but a higher % of cw.cc players do. If you want more proof, I remember 1 instance in perticulair. It was a player (whose name i forgot) but he got caught with radar hack on field. I saw a video from that same player and im pretty sure he used every advnatage skin ever created. Im also sure if I did a little more surfing, i'd find more SS's

That player, T3MP0ZIA or whatever, is a douchebag. It's no wonder that he cheated and it's no wonder that he'd have stupid skins like that. I used the default reticle for a good 3 years and I was a really good player at the time, only since like 2 years ago did i just pick up another reticle. I think it's just more of the fact that once you get used to a reticle, you want to use it - not that it gives an advantage. I don't even think i really even notice my reticle anymore just the little dot which is probably all you really need. (To see if you'll hit the wall or hill with a tank or whatever)

Anyways yeah anyone who uses skins like all one color are just lame. I don't know how well the aimbot works for all the colors it's just why would you think you're cool if someone uses an all color skin and thinks you might be cheating? i'd rather earn the accusation by having the ability to just snipe as well enough. Not that i care about sniping any more.

troop, once again your retardation reaches new levels, for one there is currently a discussion about banning all such skins in cw.cc and even playing matches on pure servers. With or without skins though the players are good because they have skill, not because they have some stupid skins.

Yeah, um, he was a cheater and has been banned for a couple months now. The good players at clanwars.cc don't use advantage skins, we think they're gay.

I know ur just trying to 'diss' clanwars.cc as much as possible because you got owned there and think it 'must be cause they cheat and use advantages' - when in reality hardly anybody uses those gay skins, and if anyone is caught cheating they're banned instantly. As mex said, Spooky is contemplating banning advantage skins all together.

I use lots of skins for ummm HACKS, ADVANTAGE< lol just kidding.

the only skins I do use are customs where the costumes are redone slightly, like hotwire, I lowered her pants to waist level because they went up to her abdomen, and just stretched her shirt down, other skins I use are the beta backpacks where in the original renegade mendoza, flame, and chem soldiers all had unique backpacks, mendoza also smokes a cigar which actually is animated every 10-15 seconds he puffs out smoke, i have a silver SBH skin which makes the sbh well umm silver, I use silver guns also which makes sbh and lcg silver (i made my own lcg because the ones you download look white) my lcg gunner is also silver, I photoshopped him to be silver like my sbh....other than that I don't really use anything advantage wise...everything is the same or just a different color.

No, what I mean is a different color, but still not advantage, advantage is where you replace the whole skin with a single color, or photoshop it to be really bright, mine are basically the same as the original renegade, just redone to my liking. (aka silver sbh rather than red)
