I already posted it twice in another topic, and it was ignored totally, so I'll try it here.

Is BRenbot 1.43 stable build available for the public?

If it is: where can I download it?

If it's not: why does almost any server has got their hands on it? When will it be released/can anyone send me a copy?

It is stable, no it isn't for the public.

BRenBot Private Beta Forum

They have access to the forum.

It will be released soon, no we cannot send you a copy if you don't have access to the BRenBot PRIVATE Beta Forum. Ask danpaul88. If he says no, sorry.

Danpaul, is there any chance you can grant me access to your amazing forum

I'm not going to use it for a real 24/7 server.. It's more for gaming with my friends and creating new commands for scripts.dll things i'm trying to make

You can always use CloudyServ. It is more expandable cause its built in simple mIRC Scripts. Always good if you want more commands and something extra.

By the way, you can't quote me if the text is different, lol! Illegal quoting going on! (joking)

BRenBot 1.31 is available (or w.e version it is) www.brenbot.com
CloudyServ is the next best thing (or the best thing, depends on you really) cs.cloudyonestudios.com

I only left something out, to help the lazy people who don't want to scroll 5 cm more

I have Nightregulator now, but I didn't like it that much (no offence on Nightma12, he did a good job building it and i don't want to start ANOTHER nightma12 flaming topic)
I already tried Cloudyserv before, but I can't/don't like mIRC scripting... All I'm hoping for is that the builders of BRenbot will release their bot soon, or grant me access to their forums hint, hint

Anyway, thanks for your answers SergeantSarg

No problem on the answers m8. I am sure if you private message danpaul (will probably get his attention sooner or later) then he will talk to you about it. He's a nice guy, or maybe he can just give you a beta without access to the forum? (I don't know really.) I am sure, if you search up BRenBot BETA on google, some idiot would have uploaded a beta to a website. Good luck m8.
