Shove it out the door before you get all moody again and toss it in the garbage. Don't count on C&C Den hosting it though... I don't think Lion will host another map section for just one map. Renegade Realm or C&C Ammo is your best choice, C&C Ammo being the better of the two due to them having unlimited hard-drive space.

Take the extra couple days to make it perfect. Just don't do what I do and turn those extra couple days into an extra couple weeks.

Im working hard, I retouched 60% of all the errors already, and redid the whole of the grassy areas. And added some cool wooden gaurd towers with bridges to one another creating a whole other level of play in tha map. [ January 19, 2003, 13:53: Message edited by: DeafWasp ]
