Well I installed Renegade again after 2 years of not playing it, did the crack thing, with the renguard thing.

Last weekend it worked fine on the weekend, but now it's not.

The renguard keeps kicking me out of Fncall server with a message saying I have cheats or some crap like that.

It loads but instantly kicks me out.

What's up with that?

Ahaha,

I was not using the Game2.exe. I was using the other one. Wow, not smart, but at least I figured it out.

game2.exe just runs renegade without renguard, it's not a real solution...

I can't help but giggle at the (assumed) typo in his title.

I wish my RG would kink me out! That is HOT!
