Anyone know a good place that lists all the key commands? I want to burn off a copy and tape it to my monitor.

Thanks

Wouldn't this be a question better asked in a Battlefield 2142 forum?

Well, when you hold down Q or T you see all the commands and have to move your mouse over them, a list wouldn't help aall that much.

Yes, I know. For me it's easier to have a small sheet I can quickly look at rather than having my character standing there idle while I scroll through commands.

I only need it for a bit, then have everything memorized, but for now I need it.

Guess I'll just have to do it the hard way.

As for the "OMG THIS ISNT THE BF2142 FORUMS!!11" Yes I know. And I have researched there with no luck.

Right... because thats what I said...
How bout, you hold down the keys, write which commands are where, and make you own list?

Take a screenshot when you have teh keys held down, then print it off and tape it to the monitor.

Not a bad idea. If I can downsize it, that would work just fine without having to transcribe.
