Of a member on these forums known as darksnipa. He is actually TRCUsniper, and is a big time cheater. He even posted video's of himself cheating in servers on youtube. He thinks he can come on these forums, try to requit people into his clan using these forums, and have no one realize who he is. I did, and I have said it a few times. In the clan section as well I noted it in his "clans" thread. Recently he sent me a PM,

Its one thing to point out that somebody is a cheater, but its another to just outright spam.

How is it spam? Im doubting that you even KNOW what spam is, so google helps somethimes, and please use it next time:

Spam is unsolicited e-mail. The term spamming is also sometimes used by search engines to mean web sites that try to gain a higher listing by submitting hundreds of almost identical pages or by inserting hundreds of keywords within a web document.

^how did I spam? exactly. If you support cheaters thats one thing, don't tell me Im spamming if you yourself don't know what it is

On these forums, that is a form of spam. Despite the fact that he may cheat, that post was unnecessary. This topic that you posted now is more appropriate, until you started with that idiotic attitude again. Enjoy your topic, fool.

I guess it would take a retard like troopr02 to think that he'd accomplished something by pointing out what everyone already knows about darksnipa.

From what I've seen darksnipa isn't causing any trouble on these forums. He voices his opinions in some threads and does some Q/A in the mod forum. His posts are not abusive and I don't recall any spam. I would just let his actions here judge him here and let the other stuff go.

Telling us he's a cheater doesn't change anything for him here. This forum doesn't ban cheaters.
