If it only costed you $100 for all of that, it means that you bought It all used.

To sell it I would either reccoment eBay, or trading it in to a local pawn shop or EB games.

I recently traded in Allzos games and PS2. £134 credit for 45 games, PS2, 2 controllers, a memory card, 2 karaoke microphones and a dance mat.

The PS2 was credited at £40.

Do not expect a lot of money but you must certainly lower your price expectation.
