Oho!

It's trooprm22, by the way.

That probably still means it's him, though.

" omg i used a faek nick how did u find out it woz me????      "

EDIT: We need someway of promoting this thread on the homepage of GOOGLE.

There's a Firefox plugin that does that, and Opera can do it anyway.

Anyway, I wanna watch this unfold.

Actually, If I remember right, he used to have a clan and all their names were trooprm##. There were 23 people in the clan and the one we seem to love to hate is 02. It is probably not him, but I would still check out the IP adress.

He joined my server too.

To be honest though, if this person was kicked out of the clan then i wouldn't think any less about trooprm. I have never really though they were bad.

Nice find, I bet you wishing it was me but im sadend to tell you its not....The nick (which belongs to one of my members) has been using on alot of different servers including even our clans server and it doesn't match the real members IP:

[09:19:00] <TRPM_Bot> [BR] 7 trooprm22 : ( 66.97.235.15 (12/04/07), 66.97.252.118 (01/04/07), 66.97.254.13 (29/03/07), 66.97.254.253 (27/03/07) )

^^only the 2nd and 4th are his and its always been 1 of those that that he has since he joined the clan. Funny thing, we have biatch on our clan server and it detected nothing on him so that shows that he was fine, but whoever is using his account is so crap they use cheats, or to ruin his name, that doesnt matter tho. Even funnier? We know exactly who it is and rm22 has told to stop using his account. Hint: it could be ex-rm14 who got banned from the clan because he was using big bodies, and just happens to be a personal friend that lives close to him so this makes it even more fucked up. And aka sharpiei has admitted to using his account, evertime I talk to rm22 on msn I tell him to go on TS becase twice it happened that sharpiei was using his msn and it was obvious because in the middle of the convo he would say something like "stfu faggit" so it wasn't him...

Anyway, take this in anyway you want, I just posted this to make sure no one in this clan cheats, and when they did=perma ban, not like BBF where its a 3 month thing so you dont need to worry about us cheating, NT starting some drama tho c0vert7, still angry at your lose I see

U say ur clan server runs biatch, but he might not have his hacks on when hes in there? Mabey when he leaves the clan server he turns them on and plays around on servers and is a n00b with them? And im not starting drama I just simply posted, look wat I found. I forgot about my loss, you shutting down for my wall jumping with 1 person, classic.

i got a question for you trooprm02 if as you say you do have biatch on your servers then how come you dont know what this means?
 [BIATCH] Damage: 10.500000; Warhead: 3.

or are there lots of cheats that do this??
or wouldnt this point to the exact cheat that does this kind of dmg multiplier?

Are you kids restarted? Um if you doubt I have biatch come to my irc, and why he fuck do you care anyway if I do or not, I didnt know you were so involved in all my affairs? wow, if you actually READ it (i know it must be difficult to do with add etc) it says:

1)when it was the REAL rm22, he would be playing on our clan server, and THATS why biatch wouldnt say anything because he wouldn't cheat.
2)when it was the OTHER guy, he would cheat, maybe not all the time , idk but he would go into other servers.
3)that exactly why I showed the logs and IP of everything I had because it proves another user of the account.
4)I have no idea what that biatch message says, its pretty new plugin for me so I haven't payed attention to the biatch headers in detail, if this makes you sad Im sorry to hear that.

keep im mind ive proven my self and my clan (more than I can say for other clans, BBF?), so atm I couldnt give a shit less even if I tryed.

first of all i dont give a damn about your clanmate cheating.. you being in that clan says enough about it to me.
second is who are you calling a kid? im older than you and obviously more mature.
third, i didnt call you names i didnt insult your intelligence as the rest of the people choose to, i simply asked you a fucking question! so dont get your panties in a bunch.
and fourth i dont run a server and i dont have any cheats so i dont know what this biatch thing says and what it means, so i asked you since you claim that you have it. and how hard was it to say i dont know... but i see you just cant answer a simple question without the attitude and for the record all i wanted to know was how to translate what biatch says in its report... NOTHING else!

and yeah i do still play not much lately since all i have participated in were community matches. and sure if you want to challange me i will gladly play you... even though im not really good at 1vs1 and you will prob brag if you beat me till no end. but first how about that....wait for it 1vs1 with SPOONY!
you show me that you played him and i will play you at whatever time you like.
and personally after playing against him in a recent community match i dont think that he is this scary that you should be afraid to say his name. i mean he is good no doubt but he is not a god troop

When did this happen? btw, he changed his password to his account so hopefully his fucked up "friend" won't be using his account no more, thats if we are lucky

if you didnt read it I said that was him, I could tell by the way he asnwered. Thats exactly why his IP would be different and thats why he denied it because like we concluded before, it wasnt him

(1) trooprm22 name has been used on two separate ISPs on different occasions
(2) the koqskate who used my teamspeak was also banned on gamerz0ne for cheating
(3) the koqskate cheater never used teamspeak from network2

MY CONCLUSIONS/THEORY:
--the trooprm22 that was auto-banned by BIATCH was probably simply falsly banned.  I've been picked up by BIATCH before, too, falsely.
--there is DEFINITELY some nickname sharing and/or hijacking going on
--there is DEFINITELY at least one cheater involved (most likely koqskate)

Please keep in mind that all of the information shown above is confirmed by at least two separate sources - many of which I confirmed with a couple of other server owners.  So the IP/nickname matches are 100% correct.  But if someone hijacked a nick, I'd need more data to prove who, when, etc. and who is guilty and who is not.

That's the best I can do at 1am.

As much as I'd like to see a trpm clan member get busted for cheating, I'd have to say he's most likely clean.  KoQskate is most likely NOT.

Alrighty, I guess I have nothing else to say but thanks for the logs and other findings, I had everything on my guy, but couldn't find anything on ex-14. Anyway, like I said this guys for some reason just go over to each others houses and play on each others comp, even after i told rm22, not to allow ex-14 he still did, that was his mistake. Funny thing is, ex-14 claims he doesnt even play but why he then just go on to ruin a "friend" nickname? people these days...

Ooooh My Fucking God! Now I hate the Trpm clan even more than I already did! They say my clan sucks because we would allow cheaters (which isn't true) and now I read that HIS CLAN HAS DAMAGE HACKERS in it!!!! One BIG lesson for Trooprm02

DON'T BLAME OTHERS FOR DOING THINGS HE DOESN'T DO WHILE YOU ARE DOING IT YOURSELF!

Wow um....can you read? I said that wasn't trooprm22 using his accont, but I couldn't prove it, then people provided some logs and  IP'S + i got some later that all matched up with what everyone else had, so infact it wasnt him.

ROFL, you re-ignited the flame war against your shithole of a clan, and you cheat so g?G

It's still cheating.

As the saying goes "you cheat once, you cheat all the time.". Don't bring BS about being "allowed" unless the server owner is a n00b cheater as well.

 You posted a video of you cheating, In shitty res so we couldn't see your nick-name, the blamed Cyberprick for it, R Tard.

 On St0rm servers? Seriously,  Did you go in and ask "Oh hey guys, can i hack on your server please?" and they said yes?! Or you a mod there? if so, now I know were you got your cracking info bs from.

I e-mailed the owner WiloSt0rm for it then. And the video's were from Cyberpunk. I know Cyberpunk via e-mail and I get all new information about cheats via him. I report it to Slidehmr who reports it to anti-cheat teams. He also gets blamed for cheating because he tested some stuff. Also st0rm would be offline a week after I could try, so wilost0rm didn't really care about it, because he wanted to make a whole new start. Now he's gratefull for me cheating on his server, because he modified his server that way that cheating is now impossible...

He doesn't use forums and you cannot reach him anymore. His e-mail address is outdated, he doesn't respond on IRC and he's not on TS. The only way to contact him is in-game, but he's not there very much.

Troop, I'm already aware that my being banned out of BBF was my fault.
Why bring up the past? Why make it about BBF? BBF itself is a good clan, I was the only idiot in it. Dont take my mistakes out on the entire clan, because you dont know shit about what your talking about.
I didnt cheat up until BBF, henceforth they didnt know that I was a cheater.

They didnt accept a cheater into their clan, they accepted an, at the time, 'normal player'.

Dont blame BBF for your clan's shityness and excessive ex-cheaters.

wait, you dont you your old clans histroy? ROFL, "BBF" has been supporting and reqruiting cheaters for a long time, dont even get me started. And I see you've returned because you 3 months ban is almost over and thier giving you a fresh start? LMFAO, not the first time this has happened makes it even funnier. My clan has had NO cheaters. The night i found out 2 members even TRYED big bodies BOTH got BANNED for life, something BBF cant say
