But what do you want me to work on, vote now.Area 51 would be cool. orWild West CTF would really rock.

How about "Scrin ship". Use the storyline from TS, and put the scrin ship in the middle of the map, and make a tunnel network INSIDE the ship.

An area 51 map, with a hidden little UFO that you could get someone to model(like the light tanks in cambodia)That would be fun.

I say a big version of that Scrin wreackage in Renegade, and make it DM or maybe make it a CTF where one end is nods area (engine room) and the front is GDIs area (flight deck or like control room). And either make the scenery outside the ship (if you look out a window or someting) space or crashed landed somewhere like the dessert.... Also if you could make some alien skins for nod or w/e little treat you would like to put in [January 28, 2003, 19:11: Message edited by: forsaken]

Don't worry about it. Ack isn't out to steal anything, or get recognition for your map. He would be the first to state that.

Well im not worried, And I know ACK, he wouldent want to take my credit.BTW, I am planning to redo Cambodia, adding many things, including more tunnels, better tunnel lighting and better jungle areas.
