I can not fine a single server where people don't have a stealth skin. It can't that they just happen to randomly fire there rocket at the exact place where my stank is. They also just happen to get headshots on my SBH from across the map too.

Also it seems I do less damage than everyone else, I will get a mendoza and shoot a harv and it takes off 1 bar every 15 seconds or so other people do it and it takes a bar off ever 5 seconds.

I am on the brink of uninstalling renegade.

There is nothing we can do about these cheats because XWIS/EA do not give a shit because they are not making 10,000 a week off of it.

Who here actually still has renegade installed anyway? I read alot of people saying they do not play it anymore but they still hang around here?

I've actually noticed that a lot less "cheat-like" things have happened since the new RG came out..

You're using the game wrong.

Try having fun instead of getting pissed off by others that are better than you.

Without Renegade, my life would be empty. I play this game so much that it is like a part of my life! Am I playing too much? lol!.

What I am trying to say is that Renegade is a GREAT game and I am dedicated to it...which means I play no other game other than Renegade.

But I understand what you are trying to say...I have the same problem but not every server is like that. Occasionally, there is a cheater in the n00bstories server but they get kicked out after people start mass-complaining.

Other than that, I faced the same problems you faced...I forgot which server but once this bastard Deadeye kept getting one-shot kills...it's impossible but he racked up his kills. I think I have the SS of the game result. This scumbag is still around with his "exploits." I know this cheater's nick but I won't say it here unless you want me to.

Then I faced the same problems with the bastards seeing my stank from across the map. Once in CnC_Field, I got an Stank and went out my base. As soon as I went out, the Meds which were camping on the GDI base entrance started firing...it's annoying as hell but that's how corrupt some parts of the community has become.

I never had the problem with the Mendoza and SBH getting killed across the map but maybe you played in a different server.

Viking man, I say you don't read much into it...it's annoying but if this bad crap happens, just curse out the cheaters and the server host and just quit the game and go to a different game. It's works most of the time.

BUT WHATEVER YOU DO, PLEASE DON'T UNINSTALL RENEGADE! LOL! PLEASE DON'T...IT'S A GREAT GAME WITH NO EQUAL!

Get a few beers, install Teamspeak and join us all in N00bstories. The cheats do not last for long, especially as the mods are usually playing and are also on TS.

I was also at the stage that the cheats were winning and we were losing. I decided to have some fun and enjoy the game because that is all it is, a game.

Yeah it may be a way of life, for us, the long term players of 5 years and over but I am sure that the cheats are not going to defeat me.

Chill out, relax and enjoy the game whilst using Teamspeak. It truly is an experience.

See you soon in N00bstories.

Ya, basically theres quite a few people like you that say "everyone cheats" but it not like that at all. Most server have biatch installed which cacthes 99% of all dmg hax, so basically, if the player has renguard, the only possible thing they could use is an aimbot that is semi accurate. If not renguard, thats different...

I still have it installed, and I do play occasionally. I don't play as much anymore because of people whining about cheating and people actually cheating.

You are welcome to play in www.mp-gaming.com servers, we have a small play list right now, but any cheaters who are caught are banned in all servers, you can also join one of the FnFall servers, any cheaters caught there are also banned in all our servers.

BI and TK2 servers use shared global bans too... I think there are quite little cheaters now though, compared to some time ago, mostly due to BIATCH and the new version of RG.

If you use Teamspeak on the n00bstories server, you should connect to ts.n00bstories.com and make sure your display name is the same (case sensitive) as you are in-game. Then, it will automatically shuffle you into the correct channel for the team you're on and keep others out.

Hmmm.... I think our goal is to help keep the game alive, I would not come on the RENEGADE forums if the game was not alive.

IronBalls is right.

Yeah Renegade does have some nasty skins and cheats, but really, that's barely happening anymore. With all of the different anti-cheat systems on servers as well as Renguard, I haven't seen a single cheater in a while.

There are always n00bs who think everyone else cheats though. I and many others got banned from so many servers in my past for simply having a k/d ratio above one. Some people like to think that people better than them are using cheats.

I was playin renegade thewe was a dude named "Kittyloaf" or something and he kept getting 30 kills in the game (most next to him was 7 kills) and every game was liek that. After I said something about it he stopped getting kills.

Also he got ALOT of dubble kills. I mean ALOT! He got a dubble kill every 2 minutes...

I said "Dude you could atleast try to hide your hax!"

lolz!

If you play in these one-off here today - gone tomorrow servers you are on your own. If you stick to the more established reputable one's, (like Jelly Servers) you should be fine. I can speak for our community and tell you it is pretty cheat free with combination of moderators we have on at any given time and the cheat detections.

The best part of Renegade is when you're playing with people you know, on teamspeak. There's nothing better than playing with a talented team, against a talented team
