I was outside and I saw this white rabbit with red eyes (albino) so I just walked over and it came to me and let me pick it up so it is not a wild rabbit cus we only have brown ones here!!

What should I do with it!? Make a "found a rabbit" sign?

I gave it a carrot!

You're actually not supposed to give carrots to rabbits.

You should probably put up a sign or two around your neighborhood saying you found it and where. I'm sure someone is pissed that their pet is missing.

I went with a friend and his family out camping one weekend at some forest. Aside from my friend, it was me, my BDU's and my compound bow. I lived off of the environment for a few days, ate squirrel, rabbit and fish. It was great. I even had the honor of sleeping in the dirt.

Rabbit is good, tastes like duck.
Not to mention, its very healthy for you.
And rabbits to carrots is like cats to milk-

It screws up their disgestive system, makes them unable to shit.

(If im not mistaken <3)

Chocolate BARS are not.

Fun fact I heard on the radio-

You eat one chocolate bar a day, you will gain 26 pounds in one year.

Well why the fuck are you asking us what to do with the rabbit? If you had one then do what you would have wanted others to do if it was your rabbit that was missing

A bear and a rabbit are shitting in the woods.

The bear turns to the rabbit and asks, "Excuse me, I'm just wondering - do you ever have problems with shit sticking to your fur?"

The rabbit says, "No, not ever."

The bear then wipes his ass with the rabbit.

If you had a pet and you lost it, you'd want it back. Just go to the police station and say that you think you found someone's albino rabbit. I am pretty sure there are not more than two albino rabbits that would be missing, so it'd be pretty easy.

Carrots are fine for rabbits as part of a mixture of veg - they shouldn't have lettuce or cabbage, they should also have hay and pellets as well and fresh water.

And if you need to pick it up, support its rear end or it can kick out and break its back.

Rabbits are pretty good pets to have, I use to have 15 rabbits, until one day the door didnt latch shut and my german shepard got in, instead of killing just one and eating it, she killed everyone of them and ate 2... But 1 managed to hide behind the cages where she couldnt get him so I still have him left. But they very much loyal as a dog, mine will lick your face and sit .

Let it go, then follow the white rabbit.

You will discover that there is some fiction in your truth, and some truth in your fiction.

They're looking for you.

It's most likely one of these ports:

USB-A (rare): USB-B (rare):

USB-MiniA (most common): USB-MiniB (most common):

Firewire 400:

Firewire 800:

Will probably take AA batteries which you can get from a standard remote control or the shops.
