Seeing as how this RG was hacked in Beta form, maybe you should recall it. And yes it was hacked in beta, "Please take you poor marketing skills to the kids in these forums instead from here on out" quickly I might ad. The old RG was by-passable but if the test were done it was detected, BUT WE DIDN'T GET KICKED FROM THE GAME OVER AND OVER. Had the company you all work for released something this flawed you would be out of work quickly. Please use some sort of business mentality and admit that this version0n of RG is to flawed for release. Please take a vote on this release and see what the people want. Hopefully you run a democracy here and actually listen to the people. So far I have been kicked so many times I regret starting renegade anymore. My firewall is and has been compatible with RG, but over and over it reports my firewall isn't compatible. Win XP is always catching the crashes now and wants to report them. Windows is on the verge of banning me from doing this because it happens so much. Again, please take a vote and see what the people want.

i just love seeing this new renguard working so well, my 2 servers have cought lots of you whiny cheaters not using renguard or using it then disabling it to use your cheats but good old biatch takes over, i just love that the new renguard is working so well, I mean its not hard to tell its working cuz so many are bitching about it with no ss or proof, other then...i keep getting kicked. lol then stop cheating its that simple, and my servers(both of them) have these logs to prove what you cheaters are attempting, well i for 1 am not falling for it. as i have many computers here with different operating systems and renguard is doing a wonderfull job on them all no problems here what so ever.

PS: renguard dont like anything in your data folder except what belongs there, so take out your crap and that will probably fix your problems.

You talk a great amount of PISH my friend.

I have never cheated in almost 6 years of game-play and still it is kicking me.

Therefore get your statement ammended before you fall foul of the gamers that do not cheat.

You have made a very bold statement and one that is highly worthy of the contempt with which it was written.

You should learn to read before you post pal, as stated above i have logs as proof, i see none here from you whinners , other then what you say, so is nothing here to amend, and if you think i care what anyone else thinks about what i say, then give you head a shake pal, cuz i really dont give a rats a$$.

I only am stating what my servers are showing me via the logs and you have what proof?

Ya thats what i thought, a big mouth with no ss of logs.

Wow, lol. How long did it take this new version? 2 years? 3 years? idk because i wasn't around then. Not only is it deemed useless but if it *DID* work, then it crashes so often and D/Cs.

This is yet another complaint since the "upgrade" *cough* "downgrade *cough*. Oh, yes. I know what you're going to say next : "Go make it better myself". Well OK, i could do that. All i gotter do is make something that doesn't crash, and scans a few files. It's by-passable but the fact it doesn't crash or D/C makes it better.

Not all people cheat, those people don't want to run RG but have to. RG crashes yada yada yada, and what does it make them? To all the n00bs out there, a cheater.

renguard's purpose isn't to catch cheaters. BIATCH and renguard aren't comaparable. No, i'm not going to say anything bad about BIATCH because it isn't by-passable. Nor did the BI team say BIATCH can do something it can't.

Once again, we are aware of the disconnect problems and we are working on a fixed version. We did not realize at the time that the client was causing the mass disconnects -- we thought it was the master servers. We have a fix in development, but v00d00 is working to finish detection of the newest version of *cough* before we roll it out.

mrzapped please, you really don't have a clue to what you are saying. If you research my other post you will see the info I gave them from an RG crash. If I was kicked for cheating than RG wouldn't crash and it would tell me I got kicked for cheating.

Not that I'm any expert on the subject, but I though BIATCH didn't pick up clientside things like radar hax, which (As far as I know) RG does.

It still crashes me out though.

it just sad that i and alot of good honest players have one that it doesn't work on.
i myself get kicked three to four times a game and i'm having it easy, some players get a crash three to four mins into a game and some earlier than that.
all this talk about it only kicking cheats is rubbish.

It will never be fixed. Incase you haven't noticed they obviously don't really care. If they had cared they would have reverted back to the original. So what if it was hacked. At least you didn't get random kicks. Oh, thx crimson for the temp ban. Seeing as how I have done what multiple other people have done and you set a ban on me? lolarious.

It depends what you want more, catching a few cheaters (be realistic, it isn't hundreds) and mass disconnects, or a few more cheaters (I haven't seen a cheater in months, and I rarely play on RG servers for obvious reasons) and everyone else being happy.

Ok now I am one of those players that can't stay in a game for the whole thing...and today has been very bad! 3 to 4 kicks in one game! Geez, we need something besides this patch because I really don't like to gripe so much but this Renguard patch isn't working at all! And if they can still cheat with it, and it kicks players like me who don't cheat, tell me what good is it then.
