caught has an spectator mode, which makes it for you that you are somewhere, while at the server, you are not there, I think.

Also there are ways to teleport you on the server, which can be initiated clientside. But BIATCH blocks those now.

A lot of people already know that I am on that site, and they often check my account there.

I do not cheat in servers that wish for me not to cheat. Only in private ones. I've only been curious in cheats so I can learn more in how to mod stuff. The cheat creators seem to teach more than most others.

I have promised to myself and to other people that I will never cheat in a public server, nor release any cheats.

Yes. I do cheat. I do make cheats. For singleplayer that is.

I was thinking about MP when he asked... That's why I said no. :/

I will be releasing the SP cheats. But I have them so that they won't work in multiplayer. When you all are describing cheats to me, the only thing in my mind was Multiplayer Online.

Aimbot can not be stopped on the server side. I don't know what the double spawn thing would be, but I can't imagine that it would still work in the newest version of BIATCH.

I found your post flawed and a little dumb, I care if he cheats in servers - cheaters piss me and most of this community off. BIATCH doesn't stop everything and from what I understand ox90 doesn't even own a copy of renegade, I also found your post a little hypocritical considering your/our history.

I also find it somewhat hard to believe that someone would go to all the effort of creating a cheat and not even use it - single player isn't exactly hard, why would you need cheats.

Do you not realise how many times us server owners have heard someone say that? "i'm only cheating so I can piss off the other cheater." It doesn't work like that cheating is cheating. He first said that he only cheats on SP mode, well now thats a lie, hes now saying he only cheats when other cheaters are about, whats next? I only cheat because.....because well I want to cheat?

It doesn't work like that cheating is cheating. He first said that he only cheats on SP mode, well now thats a lie, hes now saying he only cheats when other cheaters are about, whats next? IF the cheater ONLY Goes for the other cheater, I'm pretty sure your whole team is going to love you.

That was months ago. ./ I don't do that.

Edit: It's also weird that everyone knows what site I am on.

09-15-2006 doesn't sound very recent to me... Out of wich sewer did you dig this up?

In the past im sure I said some things that are exponentially more retarded than this. Luckily we don't live in the past. People change. For the better most of the times. Consider that. Thanks.

whow wtf. Well you did a great job making mexpirate look like a fucktard, since he wanted it locked. Ofcourse hes going to deny it, and people like BBF members will surely accept his lies, 3 month ban, then back in buisnees, ROFL. As you can read, I never for a second belived him for 2 reasons:

1)the type of shit he said on those cheating forums, no way he would say ll that and not cheat ingame, no fucking way. As he posted that stuff, he either planned to cheat online almost immedialty or all ready had, according to the things he said.

2)he just like the rest, kinda reminds of of cheeky. cheats, get caught, tries to confess (partialy) to make himself look good, people belive him, then there right back at it. Not saying thats whats gonna happen to either of then, althought a possibility, but he gets caught again in a lie, now lets watch what the fuck hes gonna say to get people to belive him, GFG

I'd rather everything about me be delt with maturely, so maybe troopr02 should be discluded from all this.

I really couldn't care if he said it 5 years ago, he still publicly admitted he cheats. Theres no such thing as an Anti Cheater (Be his definition.) If you load cheats, then you're a cheater. Your intentions may have been for the better (Cheating against the cheater) but can you HONESTLY say that you never, not once killed someone that wasn't a cheater while you were "Anti-Cheating"?

Too be honest its quite a pathetic reason to cheat. I've heard better.

As to your question bluethen, i'm not flaming you because you visited a certain site because people from BI/BHS also visit that site. Some of them have even downloaded the cheats that've been released there. But im quite sure it was purely for testing purposes in there OWN LOCKED PRIVATE SERVER. No a public one.

Once a thief always a thief, right? Well its the same for a cheater. Its the rush that they get from making people annoyed/upset that make most people cheat. 9/10 of the "ex-cheaters" around here will tell you the same thing.

Like I said before, I only cheated once or twice in a private server. It never bothered anyone because I was keeping someone else from cheating by using cheats. I drove him away.

(apologies for the off topic, people, but...)

Honestly. I've said it once, and I'll say it again... GTF0! Your whole 1396 posts are 99% FLAME and ARROGANCE! All you do is flame and it is REALLY annoying. I'm not worrying about being banned as much as you should be.

I'm not telling you to gtfo because you beat me in a 1vs1 match that I don't even recall, I'm not saying it because I'm afraid of you, I'm saying it because (As maybe over half the forum would agree with) You are a immature, arrogant, piece of shit! All your posts are bullshit or attempts at being a smart ass.

Especially when you can't think of anything reasonable to say, all you'd say is "GFG " or "GG "

It is really annoying and me, along with many other people would like to see the last of you. Stay out of the topics in relation to me or anything that has me to do with it, because the least I'd rather is people with the half of the arrogance as you, and that is still pretty bad.

I am done having to put up with your stupidity. +ignore

that x15million is how the rest of us feel about cheating. Its people like you who made TONS of people leave before renguard was finished because of cheating, and when cough was first realised. Like I said, keep selling your shit in hopes of people buying it but ive SEEN MANY cases of this same shit OVER and OVER, and if u ask around so too have MANY other people. We dont need this shit ontop of the other renegade problems, nor do we wont it to die because of peices of shit like you, ffs no body cares about ur cheating ass, nor any other cheaters, and if you havent nnoticed that you ARE retarded

I don't mind cheating in singleplayer. I've done it before, but then I got bored of doing the same missions over and over again.

Where?

I care, I like bluethen. I dislike you. Renegade is not going to "die" because of people having a little extra fun offline. It is more likely Renegade is going to die because retards like you end up filling all the servers, causing XWIS to think "what have we done? D:" and shutting down their server.

the concept of "I only cheat because they do" is the most retarded argument ever devised to justify it.

If someone is cheating then you ban them, get them banned or leave the game - how exactly is jumping in game with your cheats helping anything?

Yes. I know. I have stopped a long time ago. ./

Yet, I counter them.
