I've heard it's possible to make chinooks fly in and drop off spawning tanks. Isn't it a cinematic?
And if so can someone be a really big helper and help me with getting it working on my map? My msn is moggie17@hotmail.com, I am always signed in...

You can do this with a simple drop script lol you can get a mammoth tanks to come in and drop of another mammoth tank. [February 04, 2003, 04:12: Message edited by: snipefrag]
