Shutdown how? Does it give you an error or something? Maybe provide us a screenshot?

It just shuts down in the middle of a game like on n00bstories server when i log in it'll say "you have connected to a renguard protected server ..." and the after a while in their server sometimes i get the message that says "xh3dx should download renguard" sometimes i '!rg' myself and it will say i'm not using renguard. This all happened when i created a new logon a couple of days ago. I'M GETTIN PISSED. cause im a firm beleiver in RenGuard.

Ah. Does your Renguard window say "Welcome to RenGuard -XXX" and then when you login to XWIS, you use the nick YYY? Renguard doesn't like that, they'll fix it shortly, until then, if you use nick YYY when Renguard verified nick XXX, then you need to restart Renegade and Renguard after you've logged into XWIS. Sorry.

Reading his last post indicates that this is not the case.

This is related to that disconnect problem that everyone has been complaining about recently. Don't worry, they're working on it. They even have released a new build for the server bots to work against this problem. Sorry, but there is no quick-fix.

Well i think carrier could be on to something cause at the time when had renguard i used kd7jur2004 then i changed now to xh3dx. but when i login to renguard it says "welcome xh3dx" so i don't know i just don't like being not under renguard.
