Now is it me or have the forums been changed? I can't pick my finger on it but something seems out of place.

I flipped the Tech Support and BHS Support sections around... it was the least I could do.

Yes so you did, I prefer it the other way around. Could you change it back please?

That's what happens when Crimson tries to please the .0001% of the forum members who want to make a huge deal about nothing and cause a week-long drama-fest over how they think they forums should be run.

Personally I would have just told them that the administration will run the forums using their best judgement and the resources they have available (as they have for years now), and if they don't like it then they can just close their browser

What exactly is the problem with BHS having thier support forums here? I'm sure that if a similar type of product to the one's BHS maintain desired a subforum here, it would be given, it's just that no one's asked...

Blazer you made a mistake in your calculations. It's only .00001% that care.

No, THEY wanted them removed. I just moved them a little lower in the list. It's not a big deal.
