Only that i'm guessing you've not seen the excellent DM_Cambodia made by DeafWasp? It's safe to say that DM_Cambodia beats this ice map hands down as far as quality and standards go.So think a little before you post next time.

Yup my map is almost finished. It's called C&C_DM_IceWorld.mix and the name is staying as it has since december. My map is a lot bigger than this one and theres not waiting 2 minutes for a spawner either, it's fast action map. i have added some new thisgs to it since before because the mix format works correctly thanks to the guys here. Anyway i will release it when it done, i have other work to do non related and also more tutorials coming up soon. Watch this space.
