I posted this on the the RENEVO boards, but Dante never even remarked on it. You have to put a description of the product, what it's for, why it was made, what the future of the product is, what the next step is, and most importantly where to get it.

For the most part it is shrouded in secrecy, and only those who come here often know what the hell it is, and take it seriously. Go to every board: (n00bstories, the pitts, here, renevo, cncammo, etc) and advertise this. Now is the time, as WOL is dead for a while, and people hate gamespy.

Very true. Also I know that RenEvo has a DL page. They need to link it better. I want RenEvo and REOL to succeed. Please advertise. Also it would be nice if Crimson linked RenEvo on n00bstories.com She has his mod site, but not RenEvo.hint hint

An REOL ad banner or something somewhere on these official forums might be nice too

Better yet, get EA to patch the 60+ kb patch into everyone's Data folder with the WOL auto-patcher. That would be sure to boost popularity

The link is there now, don't jump on my ass for a small oversight. You should see how fast your image gallery loads now.

Holy Sh!t Carl, I'll have to take crimson's side here, Crimson is doing the best she can to keep the forums and n00bstories both running as smoothly as possible. you don't need to jump on her ass because your little tweak wasn't added instantly.
