Oh, RenStat doesn't support Freewebs as freewebs don't actually give you F(ile) T(ransfer) P(rotocol) access.. Just a login and password thing.

You need proper hosting man, try googling "Free FTP" and register a new site.. Plus.. You have alot more advantages with some proper hosting. :)

You haven't found the scroll button, have u?

Have a look at the list: <http://www.blackintel.org/?page=xwiswol> There's WAY too much serevr capacity.

well your spelling suggest you are about 9 so...

Also, if you wouldve found the scroll button in renegade, you would've noticed that there are 112 servers online at this very moment.

His server "deserves" to be online because it's a ripoff of W4RNING's server (Modded, !buy type commands). Then again, anyone that joins will cry them self to sleep after attempting to read his sentences...

It's not the spelling which is the problem it's the phrase construction.

Your lack of capital letters at a start of a sentence, a dot at the end of a phrase (only one) and use of paragraphs in longer texts.

That's quite a good deal actually.

If you lived in Europe..

4 X 12 = 48 euros a year.. Pretty cheep.

They survive because they put a shitload of people on one server and you all share it. That's no big problem as you just need bandwith and some HDD-space. Thing is: if one user fucks up (problematic scripts, ...) then the server might run out of memory for all users.

But yea, that's how they make money out of it: 200 persons at 4 € = 800 € as well .
