I've seen this cheater every single day hacking using cheat name removed and all that wondering if he can get banned. he sended me a picture of him using cheat name removed even. He had just joined the server the star is beside his name even.

...If his gun is shooting anything different from the standard then you are the one cheating. If he was cheating then only he would see the difference in ammo.

To everyone else it would look like the default.

Read the other replies in this topic, they all support the fact that bodboy is cheating, and trying to frame nu1ple, as he himself said.

You are the expert on that

And about the not cheating, I guess he didn't yet cheated, because he couldn't get it to work, thats why he asked for help on a certain cheat site.
