Go ingame and type " /invite "nickname""

Only works with WOL afaik.

For a bot, In IRC it usually is !invite (Players nickname)

Thanks, but I want to invite anonymous players. I don't know current players too much. I hosted a game. It's boring to wait from minutes to hours for someone to join.

There's way too much server capacity compared to the amount of players. You'll probably never fill up your server unfortunately.

Curse you C&C 3!

Too many people playing you and not enough playing Renegade!
