Do you know a room which has unlimited time (marathon) and big starting credit ( like 10000 or more). I found one, but it's not always available. Do you know one???????

I used to run a small 8 player server with 999999 credits, game time was about an hour or two, was only up for testing stuff, don't know about any others.

Yes, because hosting a game for you and your buddies to play in is a really bad idea!!11shift1
I didn't say make a dedicated server, I said host your own game.

Are you looking for a AOW Marathon server with 100000 credits? I have seen one or two but they are not up all the time.
