Well I am sad to say this but very excited, I am moving to the border of the United States and Canada to a place that gets 50+ foot of snow a year, I will be able to snowmobile 6 - 8 months out of the year instead of just 3. My dad bought an entire snowmobile/atv shop up there earlier and we put our house up for sale a few months ago. Today we got a call and the guy took the offer we put out on our house. So I will be full-filling my dreams of deep snow whenever I want . The sad part is, I wont be playing renegade anymore.. Since I wont be playing it for the 6-8 months I am snowmobiling, and I will be working in the shop and school. I have no time to do this anymore. I was hoping I would get mabey a few more months but it has come to this.

I will be giving out my recent turret model if anyone wants it, I dont know what else I have in there but I may throw it out for someone to use. I will probally finish up the last map I was working on and go. I would also like to take the time to appologies to anyone I have flamed or messed with in the past as I dont like to leave stuff off on a bad foot. Yes I may have acted immaturely and I am taking responsibility for it. I will also be sad to leave all my old friends at my old school as it took me a good 5 years (since I moved there) to gain trust in the whole class. Its werid cause my old school I wasnt that popular but well here its like a new start, I dont know if its cause my mom won all that money on a scratch ticket I was talking about before but well I know who my real friends were there. I am also losing, the one person who I thought was the love of my life, but well obviously it wont work out. I am giving up some of the best times of my life for snowmobileing as you can see how dedicated I am too it. I plan to take over the shop in a few years and snowmobile for many years to come! I will only be on for another week before we are all packed up and heading out. By late october I am hopefully going to be snowmobiling again, and ending around late june.

I will be living near a mountain thus, the reasons for getting my new mountain cat I was showing a few people.

That is my farewell to a great 5 - (6?) years of renegade, I will probally be sticking to SP based games if anything from now on if I even have time for that. I will be stopping into n00bstories TS every once in awhile.

Goodbye all.

Dude, you still have time to play games. I know that even doing things I love get boring after awhile and you need to take a break. You can't snowmobile everyday whether you would like to think that or not. You'll still be able to lurk and play renegay.
