It wasn't HACKED. It's a WIKI... anyone can edit it. Unfortunately this guy has to ruin it for all of you who mean well. It's offline until I can clean it up. The funny thing is that it will only take me about 10-15 minutes to undo what was probably an all-day project for this dim-witted loser.

The point of a Wiki is so that anyone can edit it. That's why they're so popular.

Actually its easy to fix, all you have to do is to go page history, edit the revision before the moron edited it, and save that as the new version, and its all good as new. I suspect Crimson will also be removing the indecent images from the page histories as well though, which only admins can do.

Once again, I am saying it was VulcanMak, he pulled the same shit back at Roleplay 2 forums when he got banned, blaming /b/ and all for it. This was probably for him to get us angry at that site, while he would show /b/ the posts of us angry at them, which would make them raid us.

Too bad for him it didn't work, so he came here.

By the way, Crimson, his IP is 71.110.45.34. See if he was at Renegade Wiki the day it got vandalized.

The little old troll woman comes.
In her own special way to the people she calls,
"Come, buy my bags full of crumbs.

Come feed the little trolls, show them you care
And they'll be glad if you do.
Their young ones are hungry,

All it takes is tuppence from you."

Feed the trolls, tuppence a bag,

"Feed the trolls," that's what she cries,

All around the cathedral the saints and apostles

None of the articles are lost, that's part of how a Wiki works, whenever you change a page the OLD page is still there. Therefore NOTHING has been lost, it just needs to be rolled back.

I don't want to bore you with all the details of my life, but I am working on a project for work and being sick with a cold which I caught in California, and last night I played my last game of bowling for the summer league I was in (and we WON first place!) -- now I will get this finished.

Just for reference, though... the reason I am investing a little time in this is to prevent it from happening again. The cleanup from this is made pretty easy and would only take me a few minutes. However, I am taking this opportunity to update the software to the newest version and to reconfigure it to moderately limit who has access to make updates to it.

After this is completed, I would like to see a few people who have made a lot of updates to the pages apply to get higher access to make cleaning up faster in case this happens again.

It's a rough job, but it's sometimes hard to combat someone who has 8-10 hour stretches of time on their hands to deliberately cause this much damage. I only wish I had that kind of free time.

OK, there's a permission called "Bureaucrat" which lets you edit other people's permissions. So, it seems we need a person or two who can grant people access to make edits on the Wiki. I added a new extension that prevents everyone except explicitly-allowed users to make edits to pages.

Crimson wrote on Thu, 16 August 2007 20:32OK, the wiki is back up and newly cleaned. I also upgraded to a newer version. I will still be tweaking permissions going forward, but those of you who have been waiting to update your articles can do so now.

I also wanted to extend a special thanks to Cheekay, Hex, and MajorKoopa for working really hard to fight off this idiot.

danpaul88 wrote on Wed, 15 August 2007 08:02I didn't see it, but from what I understand almost all of the pages had pr0n images on them, instead of their original content.

Why were you so slow to see the pics?

Apparently this page (http://www.renegadewiki.com/index.php?title=Talk:XWIS_Transition_FAQ)
Is protected with spam on it...

And.. would I be one of those explicitly allowed users? I do occasionally edit stuff on the Wiki and try to clean up spam and such...

EDIT: Ok, apparently EVERY page on the wiki is protected

I must admit I was almost flattered when they changed the clanwars league page to "CLAN WARS IS A NEGRO SPORT INVENTED BY SPOONY" over and over. Sometimes I get too much credit.

OK, so I'm torn between adding more admins with proper education on how to fix these attacks (and ban people), or making people PM me or someone else to get access to post.

The updated version of MediaWiki allows us to delete the images from the system entirely rather than having porn sitting around in the history.

Could those porn pictures, if of good quality, be available to those who DO wish to have it? It'd be a waste if we weren't able to enjoy the fruits of someone else's labor.
