Just now while listening to Rush Limbaugh, (Yes, i am a conservative), he was ranting about the fact that Miller Brewing company is sponsoring a gay thing down in San Fransico. That wouldn't be so bad except for the fact that the party is Christan themed. Basically they have a thing called the Last Supper, some Leisbians are calling themselves "the queer nuns" and other things like that.

Christans here in Wisconsin are totally outraged at Miller for sponsoring this. It is a complete mockery of Christianity as we know it and Miller refuses to revoke the sponsor ship. I think that this targeted to get a rise out of us. If so, then it is succeeding for me.

the only thing i can think of is a big big contradiction in the christian religion (please note that i am a christian, and im also bisexual) the bible says that god accepts everyone, and that we too should accept them. meaning this party is following the bible.

and yet many Christians think that non heterosexuals are wrong, sent by the devil, and hated by god or something like that.

sometimes i think that some people dont even THINK about where they stand. if your a christian, dedicated to accepting others, and you dont like gays, well if i continue ill just be repeating myself lol.

Well, homosexuality is a sin. however, simply committing sins does not mean you're excluded from salvation. I'm not trying to state that one sin is worse than another, because for all I know, God may put homosexuality on the same level as saying a swear word.

I do believe they're ignorant though, from their antics anyways. It almost seems as if they're trying to mock Christianity.

Hands up all those that have eaten shell fish or crustaceans.

Quote:"These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

And all that have not fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of any living thing which is in the waters, they shall be an abomination unto you:

They shall be even an abomination unto you; ye shall not eat of their flesh, but ye shall have their carcasses in abomination.

Whatsoever hath no fins nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you."

Thats found in the same area of the bible that says homosexuality is an abomination.

funny how only some parts of religion is followed

I take the Old Testament with a grain of salt. I try to avoid using it in arguments. Which is also why I'm not so sure homosexuality should be condemned. I still don't see it (and probably won't for a while... who knows?) as "natural", but I see no reason why it should be looked down upon by the church and other religious fanatics.

Homosexuality IS NOT NATURAL! I will break it down past the point of religion. We on this earth to reproduce and fill the planet with little mini-me's in order to continue our species. I know someone will bring up the MSNBC article about how there are 1,500 known species that have exhibited homosexual activity. I want you to read the last three words of that sentence over again and think about them, "exibited homosexual activity," this does not say "have a predominant role in the species society." The few cases they are able to note could easily be written off as an anomaly. I hope that being gay right now is just a fad, seriously its just wrong.

Who the hell cares if people are gay or not? They're not hurting anyone by doing it. Let people live their lives as they see fit. I know a person who is gay, and I don't disrespect him or treat him any differently because of how he chooses to live his life.

Homosexuality is not natural and it is not decided by genes. The whole genetics bullshit is cooked up by activist supporters of homosexuality who are desperate to find some scientific evidence to legitimate homosexual behavior.

Now I don't want to get involved in what is legitimate and illegitimate. When it comes to sexuality, I believe people can do whatever the hell they want as long as it is with their own bodies and with the bodies of consenting adults.

Nuff said.

Jesus wouldn't care if they are gay or not. They're people too, and if they are good, decent, and hardworking people, they'll join him in Heaven.

Straight people, and especially Churchies love going after homosexuals, and calling them sinners, because the straight people need to feel big, because they're ashamed of their own sins.

Divorce is a sin. Sex before marriage is a sin. Not eating fish on Friday is a sin. Being jealous is a sin. Not assisting the poor and elderly whenever possible is a sin. Swearing is a sin too.

If you are going to knock homosexuality for being a "sin" , then you sure as hell had better not have sinned in your entire life, otherwise in my eyes, you look like a moron.

Wow... the "It happens in nature so it must be ok" argument.

I can't believe you actually support the idea of killing your own children ( <http://en.allexperts.com/q/Wild-Animals-705/heard.htm> ), Wife's murdering their husbands when they are done with them (http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Preying\_mantis and http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Black\_widow\_spider ).

Remember, those are natural too, so when humans do it, it should be ok! (Based solely on the "It happens in nature so it must be ok" argument, of course)

1 Corinthians 6:9

" 9Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders 10nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God."

So no, While Jesus does indeed love all of us, he draws a line in who will, and won't inherit eternity with him.

Our response should be to turn away from these evils, repent and follow his ways and instructions.

And for you OT quasi-theologians: The OT was abolished when Jesus died and instituted the new covenant. Paul tells us that the "what was written" ie the OT is for our edification and instruction but makes it clear we are no longer bound by it or its laws.

And before someone brings up the thief on the cross: Jesus promised him paradise BEFORE he died (and thus under the OT Covenant of Moses) and instituted the New Covenant so he didn't have to be baptised per Acts 2:38. The OT was to make Israel aware of sin, not save them. Jesus and the sacrifice he made are the redemptive work and everything in the OT was in preparation for and fulfillment of that one act.

I hate to point this out, after all the watching animals hump each other those researchers must have done, but animals also hump pillows and just about anything they can get on top of when they are horny because they simply don't care. ANYTHING If you get what I am saying.

Also, I don't think this is so much about them being gay, as it is more or less they are trying to mock the Christian religion. That is what makes it wrong.

No, you fool. Outright attacks on religious depictions is.

For example if I were to paste an anti gay slur here that would be an attack.

And my whole point is that this is hardly on a level of burning christians in the street and not worth the attention it's getting.

Stuff like this happens every day to christians but if we place the ten commandments in a court of law the rainbow warriors come out of the woodwork.

I'm not even going to dignify such blatant stupidity with a good response. It isn't worth my time. You know damn well that the KKK are extremist and 99% of Christians aren't like them.
