Anyways Ask Crimson, she MIGHT be able to help you, but I don't think XWIS or Crimson know your password. (Stored on secured server perhaps?) So I'm guessing you need to make a new account.

XWIS stores passwords as a hash, so there is no way for even admins to tell what your password is. You will have to do the reset_passwords procedure, and deal with having a random password set.

um, i admitted to the fact i've cheated in the past, but since Januray 2007 (yet again) when you unbanned me, i've been clean in every single clanwar, the only time i've cheated was in n00bstories, which was a public server with final renegade, and if you want me to get specific, it was under DACRIMSON (no player in the game would of known it was me, robo, besides admins who can get my ip) and with final renegade, i'm not sure if you think i wasn't expecting to get caught cheating in n00bstories or not, but the truth is i don't really care, i did it for the hell of it

For the purposes of getting points across clearly, making it plain which statement a rebuttal refers too, etc... it's fast and easy to do and if you think it puts me on your level of geekdom by being so desperate to win a computer game that you need to cheat and lie about it over and over and over, you're in denial, frankly.

DeAd3yE11 wrote on Tue, 16 October 2007 21:00|um, i admitted to the fact i've cheated in the past, but since Januray 2007 (yet again) when you unbanned me, i've been clean in every single clanwar, the only time i've cheated was in n00bstories, which was a public server with final renegade, and if you want me to get specific, it was under DACRIMSON (no player in the game would of known it was me, robo, besides admins who can get my ip) and with final renegade, i'm not sure if you think i wasn't expecting to get caught cheating in n00bstories or not, but the truth is i don't really care, i did it for the hell of it

Here we go again...

"Ive never cheated ever"

"really?"

"yes"

"except this time?"

"ok I lied about that but thats the only time"

"here's another time"

"ok spoony i lied about that too but IVE NEVER CHEATED IN NON00BS"

"here's a time you cheated in non00bs"

"ok spoony i lied about that too but IVE NEVER CHEATED IN A CLANWAR"

"here's a time you cheated in a clanwar"

"ok i lied about that one as well BUT I WONT CHEAT ANYMORE"

"here's another example of you cheating after you said you wouldnt"

"NO IT DOESNT COUNT BECAUSE I KNEW I WOULD PROBABLY GET CAUGHT"

when I used the words "endless cycle", this is the kind of thing I'm talking about.

DeAd3yE11 wrote on Tue, 16 October 2007 21:00you seem to repeat yourself a lot, maybe if you thouroughly read my posts you would understand that I understand what you are talking about, i'm just pointing something out that you keep arguing againts even though it's the truth

What you fail to understand is I don't care about the retarded excuses you've been giving every single time you cheat and it turns out you've been lying to absolutely everybody again and again and again. The only thing I need to know is two little words:

"you cheated"

I must say, though, it's mildly amusing watching you go into defensive meltdown with these obsessive excuses... you're trying so hard to clear your good name somehow that you didn't stop to realise you don't even have one.

Why would you lock my nice thread about the weather?

Err...my apologies!
