You can get the original team fortress stand alone now with half life 2, They named it team fortress 2 like the new game, but really it's just stand alone and improved, but with the old gameplay and old graphics.

I call bullshit.

Team Fortress Classic was made in 1998, I has bad-ish graphics and shit, But the game play is okay, Team Fortress 2 is the newer and improved, Much balanced, Cool cartoon graphics game that has been worked on for 9 years.

TF2 is killer but I'm already completely bored with it. I don't have any desire to play anymore....maybe if they sent some more maps our way.

I know it.

Pyro appears to be my third favorite:

They took them out on purpose. Apparently they were just a big nuisance in the original but I never played it.
