hey guys is there a way to put my favourite scripts on top of my lvl edit? like it will not list scripts like:

a_

b_

b_

it should look like:

JFW_Disable_...

TDA_...

a_

b_

You could rename your favourite scripts to start with "aa_".

You would have to re-compile them, but it should work.

I always thought JW should of added that feature in his LE version.

Hopes and dreams, hopes and dreams.

Renaming the scripts will make your map not be compatible with other people's games unless they have your renamed version of the scripts. What I always do is start typing the name of the script, that way it zero's in on it:thumbsup:
