Tell me, since you seem to obvoiusly understand why you do it.

Tell me why you think 'Renegade Forums' runs all of the servers to do with Renegade?

Renegade Forums DO NOT run any servers within Renegade what-so-ever. Members of these forums, however, do run servers.

Goto THEIR FORUMS and post why, NOT HERE!

Although free speech is limited, everyone is allowed to give their opinion about a server...

Usually, if I owned a server, I'd want people to be giving opinions. Great for improvement, but people who just bans opinions will never approve.

posting here about getting banned on a server is useless this is the kind of stuff you get from people here when you post stuff like this and how would we know why you are banned there, out of the people that post on here I bet 5% or less play on that server, maybe?

If you want an answer go look for the server owner or mod that banned you

I think the only reason why they are poking fun at you is because you demanding answers from people who don't know/don't care.

No one here has any say about who gets banned on FnFalls, and if they do, that means they are just also apart of this community as much as they are apart of theirs.

Basically what you asking is the same as going to a car show and demanding to see the boats.

If I was in your situation, this is what I would have done the moment I found out my little brother/brother was screwing me up.

- Uninstall Renegade/Renguard/delete WW folder
- Reinstall Renegade/Renguard/ Don't install CP2-No CD patch.

Keep the 2 Renegade CD's with you or hide it in a secure place. Take them out only when you want to play.

I'm hoping you mean that you've been playing Renegade for 3 years, since Renegade has been released since 2002.

Look, if you weren't such a fucking troll, nobody would care. You create angry topics that have NOTHING to do with these forums. If you just posted topics that are better on a different forum, you wouldn't be ridiculed. You would have just been directed. However, you make posts that are immature, nonsensical, and utterly stupid. As I said, my 10 year old cousin has better composure than you do. Get over it, kid.

Why do we need to give you TWO sources? If you were simply banned from FNFALL, you would just simply go to the FNFALL forums. Which, funny enough, you did, and yet you're STILL bitching on here.

If you were banned from RenGuard, go to the RenGuard forum that can be found here:

What do you know, that just happens to be two sources.

bwat,

People have tried to help you, such as Cheesesoda, and you just give them an earful. You type with caps-lock on, you've got poor English. You ignore what people say, you turn on ignore for people who give you a straight answer. You even flamed kholdstare for helping you.

As for this community, there are ignorant stupid pricks who do flame you, but they are retards who need to get a life. Those people you should put ignore on for, not the people who try to help you.

Nearly every time someone new goes to the rengaard forum they post with poor English, and clame it was their brother/uncle/dad/dog/fish or say it was because they "accidently downloaded the cheat and accidently again installed it and somehow accidently ruined someone else's game".

If you run a server, someone came in and started hacking would you ban them? Yes, you would, would you believe their story if they came to you and literally said "OMG U BANT MIE IT WUSUNT MIE DIT WUS MIE BROW UNBANT ME PL0X" would you? What you're saying come across as what i exaggerated above.

I assume you'll call me a crying 10 year old, if you don't at least read what i said then it's the last bit of help you're receiving from me. I will give you some advice, take it into account, learn from it. The renegade community will learn to live you if you do. Typing as if you've at least tried to spell correctly and use proper grammar goes a very long way. I'm not a good speller, but i use the spell check button and it helps

(I wonder why people scroll through someones topic and have a read then reply and say something like "FUCK OFF" it's like overhearing a stranger's conversation then walking up to that person and saying "SHUT THE FUCK UP YOU BASTARD, WHAT ARE YOU ON ABOUT!?" in the street)

But thanx RoshamBo 4 that...i do not wanna blow a load of words in your face as i respect you as a programmer and you just wanna help me out!

But i take the part where you say that my "english sucks" i will not take onboard...my english is fine->

I can spell and know how to setup up sentences...i mean this is a games Forum, not Microsoft Word anyways...grammer and exact spelling is not a priority here! I mean you can read my posts can't you?

Oh and about the Photo...i will see what i can do about that-> through the reply's as they just said things like "FUCK YOU BAT" etc, maybe i will end up banning near everyone on this forum?

(I wonder why people scroll through someones topic and have a read then reply and say something like "FUCK OFF" it's like overhearing a stranger's conversation then walking up to that person and saying "SHUT THE FUCK UP YOU BASTARD, WHAT ARE YOU ON ABOUT!?" in the street)

But thanx RoshamBo 4 that...i do not wanna blow a load of words in your face as i respect you as a programmer and you just wanna help me out!

But i take the part where you say that my "english sucks" i will not take onboard...my english is fine->

I can spell and know how to setup up sentences...i mean this is a games Forum, not Microsoft Word anyways...grammer and exact spelling is not a priority here! I mean you can read my posts can't you?

Oh and about the Photo...i will see what i can do about that->

Although my Digital Camera is broken and my dad prizes and protects his with his life!

I will try to find it and get a Picture of me and my bro. Although if he refuses i will have to wait till he's asleep then sneak in and take a picture or something lol!

What a fag. Add me plx.

As a server and forum owner, I like to prevent problems before they happen. By collecting your IP, I can see to it that future complications on the server and forum will be avoided, in the event that you wish to pay us a visit.

Last I checked, bat66, you are not banned from n00bstories' server.

If you wipe off any hacks, and get RenGuard fired up, you should be able to play in the servers no problem.

Your biggest problem might be just getting in, because it's often packed, but you are welcome.

I had a nice, long post written. The forum ate it, so it's gone. This one won't be as soft and cushy.

bat, nobody believes you. The 'my brother did it' excuse is as old as online gamig, and nobody buys it anymore. Add that to the fact that you didn't even mention your so-called brother until your position was already thoroughly demolished, and we've got even less reason to believe you. Stop using that lame excuse and own up to the facts.

The facts are:

- You cheated.
- You got caught.
- You got banned.

Oh, I'm sorry, you can't play anymore? Too fucking bad. I can't play either, but I can't play because my network sucks hairy donkey cock. You can't play because you went and fucked it all up. Zero sympathy minus five here, and still dropping.

So you got banned from the server's forums, too? Boo fucking hoo. I don't even have to go and look at the posts in question to know why you were banned; I'll bet anything that you posted there with the same condescending, screaming, my-demands-be-met-NOW attitude and got exactly what you deserved for it. That hasn't happened here yet only because our moderators are very, very forgiving- too forgiving, sometimes.

Let's face it: you're pissed off because you got caught with your pants down. You broke the rules and got caught with all your vulnerable bits a-swingin' in the breeze, and now you're trying to deny that it was even you. Aside from your being a complete asshat for cheating in the first place, that's just fucking pathetic. You are the only person to blame for where you are right now. Accept it, shut the fuck up, and move on.

Nobody cares, nobody feels sorry for you, and nobody is going to help you. You had a chance- the only chance you should have needed- and you blew it. A great many of the people here, myself included, have been playing since day 1 (and some before that) and never even so much as looked at cheats. We never needed them, we never wanted them. If anyone has a 'right' to play, it is those of us who don't fuck around with that stuff. You did. You fucked up. Not your brother, and certainly not us... you. You have no case, and even if you did you have no credibility. You ruined both. If there were such a thing as negative credibility, you would have it right now- and all you are doing by staying is building the case against you.

Your very presence here is an insult to those of us who have never done anything wrong yet can't play for some legitimate reason.

Fuck off.

I didn't really want to throw my opinion into this fracas, but since Nukelt15 decided to explode without having all his facts straight, I feel I should confirm that bat66wat6 and SNipE3RR are definitely brothers.

[19:18:59] <&BCServ5> SNipE3RR(90..) has joined the game, fighting for team Nod

[19:19:00] <&BCServ5> SNipE3RR is logged into XWIS

[19:19:00] <&BCServ5> Garrett: eep

[19:19:02] <&BCServ5> bat66wat6(90..) has joined the game, fighting for team GDI

[19:19:02] <&BCServ5> bat66wat6 is logged into XWIS

[19:19:56] <&BCServ5> Ionos1989 crushed SNipE3RR (Gunner/Rocket Launcher(Strong) VS. Shotgun Trooper/Shotgun)

[19:20:26] <&BCServ5> Garrett obliterated Ionos1989 (Black Hand Sniper/Sniper Rifle VS. Gunner/Rocket Launcher(Strong))

[19:21:02] <&BCServ5> SNipE3RR obliterated bat66wat6 (Black Hand Sniper/Sniper Rifle VS. Sydney/Tiberium Auto Rifle)

FYI, Garrett is z310. Anyway, a mod at Black-Cell requested a screenshot from SNipE3RR a few days later, and it never arrived. bat66wat6 was not even considered for a screenshot request, yet he is banned because there is no way to prove that his brother won't hijack his account and play under it. I had considered bringing bat's request for just a nick ban to the admins, but if his attitude is going to be as hostile as it's been here, I doubt there would be any consideration.

So, in conclusion, although bat hasn't really helped himself, Nukelt15: you owe him an apology for that misinformed rant.

Well it's all over isn't it!?

I've been screamed at...shouted at, accused and insulted for simply wanting to badly clear my name and get back to good old days of Renegade Online gaming->

But thanx to you havoc9826 i have finally got reliable proof that my brother even exists. I mean i cannot be in 2 places at once and certainly cannot controll two players at once

So there we have it->I have not accomplished all that i have set out to do but yet again thanx to you havoc9826

With that one post you have effectively provided proof that my brother exists.

P.S-Nukelt i strongly feel that you owe me a BIG appology

That post you you sent hit every spot for me to be so infuriated that if you where standing in front of me i'd punch you!

As havoc9826 said you do NOT have all of your facts straight

You really need to understand that this forum does not own FnFalls server, and therefore, none of its members can unban you from it.

Which brings us to the point where WE DO NOT CARE! Is it so hard for you to understand that? You persistant complaning about being banned from a server that has NOTHING, WHAT-SO-EVER to do with RenegadeForums gets you these replies.

You really need to take this over to FnFalls forums, and explain to them, in a good, apologetic manner, exactly what happened and if they would be kind enough to unban you.

If you went there and screamed about all the shit you have done here, i'm not supriised they've banned you and i would have done the same, if not, ban you from the forums and everything to do with FnFalls servers, if i were them.

You need to contact the server administrators, not hosters, the people who moderate and administrate the forums and ask, kindly, if they could consider unbanning you.

Leave this topic now. Go take my advice and contact FnFalls. If you continue to argue here with the retards that are the majority of people under 18 years of age here at RenForums, then there's no hope in you getting unbanned.

Why do people almost demand that i be calm, cool and accept all they say? I mean in these circumstances i think that anyone in my position would be just as angry as i am

I think that even 4 me juring this topic/thread i have been reasonably compliant and if you think this is me being "All Out Shouting screaming my head off at you as mad and angry as i can" Then i am afraid you are wrong...when i first Posted this topic i seriously was so angry and furiated i had to take time-out for 30 minutes before i started posting->

Bat, you provided me with your local IP address, meaning the IP address of your computer within your own home network, (aka 192.168...). This IP is completely useless to me, seeing as it's only useful within your own home.

Go to www.whatismyip.com to get your actual IP address. That will be useful to me.

Plus he said he has been playing on the server for some time now, AND he says that it is his favorite server.

Even if by him faking having a brother to get out of a ban was premeditated for cheating in the future, I don't believe he would cheat on his favorite server. Or make a thread like this for that matter.

But also, no offence to bat or anything, I don't think he is the kind of person who would be able to scheme a plan like that. Saying he has a brother who cheats, then using whatever leeway to go and cheat himself...

You're still a fucking idiot. Whether or not you actually have a brother (and havoc has proven that you have), you started off by posting on these forums that have nothing to do with FnFall and NEVER have. You, then, got all pissy when we pointed this out. You even continued to bitch on these forums about being banned even AFTER you posted a thread on FnFall. Do you really think we should be nice to you when you're this fucking thick-headed and arrogant?

It's always someone's brother sister cousin father cat dog or goldfish that cheats on your account. Thats all you can do about it now.

I find this all kind of amusing. You show no respect for anyone, act like a total jackass and demand something from them? Even though it is the wrong place to begin with. I looked at your topic on fnfalls. To sum it up for the people here:

"It has been moved to the "resolved bans" section cuz it won't be lifted so the case is closed. So please don't make new posts, when you will have proof u didn't cheat, u will post here, but, as for now, this topic is useless as this case is solved (positively or not)."

"Your ban has now gotten page ingore which means we can not see your pages on irc. Spam the fourms and fourms will be next. Thx have nice day"

So by now you've already not listened to what you've been told from a mod. Then you go on to insult him.

"Told your on fourms, told you on irc, does not matter if he is really there or not you will not be able to be unbaned, because he lives with you and can use ur name now u are banned from fourms alog with banned from server along with pi ingore. Enjoy ur life."

Topic found here --> <http://www.gamerz0ne.com/forums/index.php?topic=1520.0>

So in other words, the people that pay to keep a server running have the RIGHT to do whatever they want. As far as i'm concerned they did it fairly and treated you with far more respect than you deserved. You're an ass and apparently have a problem with authority. It sucks your brother cheated but look at it from their point of view. They do not allow cheaters and so long as you live with him or whatever household. They do not care and the fact that you were pushy about it didn't help. You may have had a chance but you blew it by being an ignorant prick. Sucks to be you, maybe you'll learn. But probably not...

Edit: You're taking this all far too seriously. There is no reason for being so upset about being banned from a server in a game. Go get some fresh air

In all fairness, I didn't either the first time I used it.

However, I was smart enough to know when a link was trying to access my IRC program, and when one was going to open a java application.

And what do you know... you require mIRC for the links to work... imagine that.

Well, if you click a link and it's going to irc://whatever, then you should learn like you did. Clicking on it initially, yes, one wouldn't know. Apparently he's been trying more than once, so one would think it would have sunk in before now.

You don't fucking get it do you?

Server administrators and/or moderators have their position because they are fair (to an extent) and care about their players.

If they let one person back in because s/he said his/her brother cheated and got them banned, they'd have to unban everyone since it's only fair. If they didn't, the pervious banned people would bitch and complain about it, and it would make them seem selfish and picky.

You need to understand. Whatever happens with your IP, on someone elses stuff, that you have no control over is your buisness. If you object to something like that, take it up with the person who has the ability to unban users, IE: admins or mods.

Users here have nothing to do with you, and therefore you don't really need to bring it here in the first place. So, just drop it now. It doesn't need to continue unless you really want to continue getting laughed at.

BUT....WHY THE * HAVE I BEEN BANNED FROM FNFALL'S MARATHON SERVER!?

for:I love bigheads"

I MEAN FOR GOD SAKES! WHY THE FUCK HAVE I BEEN BANNED! I HAVE NEVER CHEATED OR HAXED IN MY WHOLE LIFE!

I MEAN EVEN "IF" I DID DO YOU REALLY ACTUALLY THINK THAT I WOULD GET MYSELF BANNED FROM MY MOST FAVOURITE SERVER THAT I HAVE BEEN PLAYING ON FOR THE PAST 3 YEARS!?

CAN SOMEONE PLEASE GIVE ME A EXPLANATION HERE!->?

This is bat's first post. We see a number of errors, omissions, and outright bad choices here. Let's review them one by one to find out where our purple-faced friend went wrong:

1. Ineffective title. A good title would expose the purpose of the thread; all this topic's title tells us is that the author is angry about something.

2. Obviously, the extensive use of capitalization. Caps are OK to use on occasion for emphasis (though italics, underlining, and boldface are much more effective), but typing every word out in capital letters is the internet equivalent of screaming. Screaming at people one doesn't know isn't the most effective way of soliciting their assistance, for reasons that really ought to be obvious.

3. Incorrect assumptions. In this post, bat has clearly assumed that there will be members on the RenForums capable of providing him with a reason for his ban as well as people capable of reversing it. Furthermore, he appears to assume that there is not a very good reason for the ban, which we've seen since is not true. I'm certainly not innocent of making assumptions based on inadequate or faulty information, but that doesn't mean our colorful new member is any less mistaken in assuming things about these here founs and the members who post here.

4. Rude language. All you really have to do to see this one is read the post over again. Add the use of language to the use of capitalization and the whole post comes across pretty much the same way your stereotypical asshole boss would if somebody left a few tacks on his chair and he wanted to know who in the office was responsible. To better illustrate this point, I'll paraphrase the post itself:

Quote:LISTEN UP! I JUST GOT BANNED, AND I WANT TO KNOW WHY! SOMEBODY IN HERE HAD BETTER COME UP WITH SOME ANSWERS RIGHT FUCKING NOW! ONE OF YOU KNOWS SOMETHING, AND YOU'D BETTER START TALKING RIGHT THIS DAMNED MINUTE BEFORE I GET REALLY PISSED OFF!

^ Not the most effective way to ask for help (at least not if you want to get it).

5. Omission of fact: cheating sibling. The omission of this little detail means that bat already knew the reason for the ban, and just didn't care to let anybody know about it right away. When bat finally mentioned this several posts later, the timing and the ahem colorful nature of his previous posts led many, including myself, to believe that "my brother cheated" was being used (as so often it has been before) as a cheap excuse. Detail is important; if you're having a problem it is vital to include as much detail as possible. Not mentioning the cheating brother (much less giving any evidence of his existence, which didn't show up until havoc posted it) causes people to proceed from the assumption that the ban in question was the result of something bat did- which means all subsequent accusations of foul play against him are effectively his own damn fault.

6. General lack of detail. This follows from #5; how is anyone to be of any assistance unless more information is provided? "I got banned and I want to know why" doesn't help. Chat logs, links to the FnFalls forums, screenshots clearing bat of wrongdoing- those things would have been helpful. Without any of that, it is a case of "relatively unknown player's word vs. well known server's admin's word," a scenario which almost never favors the player.

Let's go back and re-write bat's first post- starting with the title, and based on what we know now- and see if we can't make something out of it:

Quote:Title: Unjust ban, please help!

I tried to log on to the FnFalls Marathon Server after two days of not playing only to be greeted by an unexpected ban. The message I received was this: "You were banned by "BigBoy@IRC" for:I love bigheads"

I have never cheated, so the ban is not fair. I would like to ask if anyone could help me find out why I was banned, and perhaps also help me get the ban lifted so that I can play again.

I think that the ban may have been because of my brother- I know he has cheated before, and we use the same IP but play under different aliases. If he is the reason I am banned, I would like very much to know whether my ban could be lifted, as I do not deserve it, while his remains in place.

I know that this may not be the best place to post this particular problem, but I can't get IRC to work and I have already been banned from the FnFalls forums. I don't know where else to turn! I cannot play on my favorite server which I have been a regular of for three years now, and would really appreciate any help you could give me in sorting this out so that I can get back to playing again. Thanks!

Isn't that a lot better? It still doesn't have a whole lot of detail, but it is up front about the cheating brother and doesn't come across as an accusation of guilt directed at the entire forum. Posts like these tend to get calm, reasonable, helpful responses because the people who read them don't immediately feel insulted. A few people might still have doubted bat's claims and accused him of cheating, but I dare say that his reception would have been quite a bit warmer and more pleasant. He still wouldn't have gotten what he wanted, but at least he'd have had a chance of becoming a member of the community who people actually want around, rather than a screaming little troll who gets laughed at, flamed, and generally hated by almost everyone who reads his posts.

Honestly, I never did doubt that he had a brother. There was just an extent to his stupidity that I realized he was being truthful, just a complete, inconsiderate asshat who demanded way too much from people who were not equipped to give him the responses he wanted. When I saw that angering him even more, I couldn't help but take advantage of it. He could have avoided an 8 page thread if he was a little more tactful like Nukelt said.

His original post was better. The post you described to be "better" is no fun at all... it's flat out full of fail.

If you want to make people who have no idea what to do help you, you have to say it in a WTF tone, it is as simple as that...

I've been posting on forums for many different gaming communities ranging from FPS to RPG to RTS to Simulators for eight years now, and not once have I ever seen a post like bat's receive a positive response. This is the only forum I have ever been a member of where that sort of flame-bait hostile posting has been tolerated. I can think of several forums on which a first post like that would have earned bat an insta-ban for terms-of-use violations before anybody even would have had a chance to post up any response at all. Honestly, razor, I have no idea where you've come up with the notion that screaming and cursing gets results- folks only listen to that kind of shit when the person screaming and cursing also has access to the banhammer.

On the other hand, polite introductory posts asking nicely for help (rather than demanding it) receive generally positive responses and, even if the problem is never addressed, the new poster is usually welcomed into the community for all their future needs. Yes, I've seen plenty of polite posters flamed for making simple requests, but typically only by members no one really gives much respect to anyway. Only the most patient and tolerant forumites are going to post helpful replies to a raving bloody lunatic.

The internet is not an egalitarian society; if you mean to get any sort of useful results then you need to be on your best behavior when posting on a forum which you aren't a long-time member of. Unless you've contributed something to the community, or unless you've been there long enough without making too much of an ass out of yourself, you won't be doing yourself any favors by screaming at people. Long-time members get laughed at when they make posts sounding like assholes, as long as they don't do it too often. Newer members get flamed and run out of town.

This isn't even a matter of people knowing or not knowing how to help (a fact which screaming would do nothing to change anyway), it's a matter of convincing them that you deserve their help. The bottom line is that veterans don't like to be screamed at by some random newbie who thinks they're hot shit and crackers.

Well i know that at the time when i posted/made this topic and the first post i was very very angry...just insanely out of this world furious!

I mean think of it, i have been banned not once but TWICE for these kinds of incidents....first by my little bro hijacking my account when i was outta the room! And now for him simply having the same I.P!

And because of that technical factor not one single Mod/Admin/Host will believe me (Except for SR) and let me back into there server even if i were to post SS's of my little bro 4 proof he exists and if i gave them all of his account names.

When something like that happens you can't really expect me to approach in a happy uplifting mannon "politely asking"

AS Nukelt said, even he in the 8 years he's been in on Forums he has seen people who have approached using the "polite, calm" approach have been flamed!

And when i "flamed" all those people throughout the thread i admit i may have been short tempered and even arrogant at points but some would not listen to what i have to say, some completely ignored me and a few where stupid and ignorant enough to post pictures of fish or just quote what i had already said or just plainlt put nothing except "...". Or just reply because there i ignored them and whant it show up on my Notifications board to piss me off!

All i really want to say now is...what a waste of time, all that effort! Struggling to just plainly #1 proove my bro exists (Accomplished) #2 Get only his nicknames banned #3 for me to be able to forget this ordeal and continue playing happily with no troubles on Renegade as it was before!

Much better, but try to look at it from the admin's perspective. If they unbanned your ip, what's to stop your brother from changing names and cheating again. Their goal is to keep their server cheat free and keep people donating to keep it online. They don't really want to risk any of that over something that isn't fool proof. My suggestion, put a password on your computer to prevent him from further bannings. Or simply get renguard.

I mean if i have Renguard i can play on certain servers my bro can't thusly im safe from him haxoring away and gettin me banned + people can never say that i hax if i get banned via I.P because i have Renguard which is an Anti-Cheat program

But a few questions first

#1:Doesn't it conflict with your own server, especially when modded

#2:Does it conflict with any mod you where to make for LAN or FDS?

#3:I've heard from certain people that Renguard makes your server lag

4#:Does it have many or any technical issues, e.g Virus detection software thinking it's Malware etc?

@ nuke.

What I meant is that if he had posted it in the "correct" and "polite" why you described, he would of received no answer. People would just ignore the thread. Possibly one person would of come in and be like "LOL N00b!" or something but that is beside the point.

The way he posted drew people into the thread and thus he received an answer. Of course many people flamed him, but he also eventually received an answer to his question.

Think of it this way. You walk into a Bestbuy, and ask one of the workers where they sell the fish. What do you think they are going to say?

I do not see why Renguard would not give me support and credibility in a haxoring accusation!? I mean it's the most common Anti-Cheat system going for Renegade. Even when i log in on WOL it comes up with recommending Renguard for added securite whilst online...

If Renguard can't do the job it's desighned to do then why would people ever use it!?

And as for luv2pb...with the way you reply to my very very complying posts i would be glad to Ignore You->

But before i take that sorta action i wanna know why you hate me and "want me to die"

I have not done anything that involves you have i!?

And what's with the "#2:wtf? that doesn't make sense" Answer incase you don't understand my question. I meant "Doesn't it conflict with your own FDS if you mod it for whatever purpose"

Meaning in a sense->Won't it fuck you off if you mod the FDS thinking that you hax or something?

Just like BIATCH! Which has given me considerable frustration when i changed the Orca rocket to do 50+ damage

Because people have, and probably always will find a way to bypass RenGuard.

Just because you run it, doesn't mean you're safe.

If anything, the benefits from it would be that your brother, nor anyone else who logs in though RenGuard will be able to cheat, at all.

RenGuard is ClientSide. Only the regulators have ServerSide RenGuard ability. Thus, will not effect your server. If you want to mod your client, you mustn't run RenGuard as it won't let you start game.exe with objects.ddb/*.w3d files in the data folder.

However, if your brother has no idea of how to bypass Renguard you ~should~ be safe.

Because you said yourself that you have never once been even accused of cheating before. So if that is true, no one should even attempt to ban you. And Renguard is a good plus to have behind you.

Maybe you can work out a deal with the FnFalls server that if you enter their server not running renguard, they have the right to kick you out. (Meaning your brother joined under your name with a cheat) However, if you are running renguard, they let you stay until someone complains.

Let me think... You came here and made thread with bad attitude, so everyone started treating you that way. It is your own fault that people are treating you this way.

And since you probably made a thread similar to this on the server forums, I would not be surprised if they banned you for that.

You are lucky that these forums don't have very strict rules.

You completely missed the point. I said that I've seen people who posted nicely get flamed, but that isn't what usually happens. When people respond poorly to polite posters, other members of the forum will typically call them out and tell them to shut up. However, people who make obnoxious, poorly edited, angry posts like yours almost always get a negative response from almost everybody. Ergo, such posts are generally a bad idea, especially for newer or lesser known members of a forum- and they become a major hurdle for the poster to overcome if they ever want to ask anything of the forum's members again.

Oh come on, it's the internet. If people can use "OMGWTCBBQM8" as a way to say "Oh my god, what the crap barbecue, mate" then I don't see a reason why someone can't spell "Though" like "thow"

I mean, you obviously understood the word he tried to spell...

If someone typed "OMGWTFCBBQM8", I'd tell them to speak English or GTFO. It's not a stretch to expect people to type out their words fully.

But what if, just what if, your barbecue caught on fire and you only had 3.7 seconds to tell somebody over the internet that something is wrong with it, under penalty of death?

You would therefore be forced to type it like that and thus saving you're life!

Now, thanks to me, you're life has been spared!

Just don't post on the Internet, and if you have to, you can always explain what you meant later, but it just seems unnecessary to have to post twice to say the same thing.

Also, failing at grammar and spelling in posts and chatrooms (cells are a exception), people would look down at you, and find you inferior.

Looking at this, if they see the need to throw in a PUBLIC mode of communication to resolve a personal issue, then that leads me to one of the following conclusions:

-Bat is schizophrenic and his "brother" is another part of his mind

-Bat and Sniper are on in the same person, only arguing with himself as two different people publicly so it seems as if there really is a problem to be looked into
-They are just trying to kill two birds with one stone being that no one would believe that they had this argument if it wasn't made public.

Yeah, but the problem is, is that no one here really believes either of you, and a few people are just making you two out to be dancing chimps for their e-entertainment.

So just give it up, and buy yourselves a new game, and learn a valuable lesson.

Wow, what a waste of time.

There is NO point at all in posting this here. Have you figured that out yet bat? Before you said you couldn't post on the FnFalls site now you said you can. The proper thing to do would have been to post here saying "Does anyone know how I can get a hold of an FnFalls Admin?"

If you had done that you would be getting somewhere. Now you're just screwing yourself over and judging by the language your using I wouldn't be amazed if you received some kind of a temp ban on these forums.

My point went completely over your head, it seems.

I'm not claiming all teenagers are "stupid". I'm simply remarking on the sheer stupidity of UK teenagers (roshambo and Dave even contest to this) as a whole. I'm not saying you have to be a teenager to be stupid, nor am I saying you have to be matured to be intelligent.

Yes, I realize there are exceptions, but it's still a general rule.

lol. I don't get why all teenagers are 'stupid.' Yea, the majority could be, but just think of C4-Smoke.

My point went completely over your head, it seems.

I'm not claiming all teenagers are "stupid". I'm simply remarking on the sheer stupidity of UK teenagers (roshambo and Dave even contest to this) as a whole. I'm not saying you have to be a teenager to be stupid, nor am I saying you have to be matured to be intelligent.

WOW...I thought you were ignoring him?

Say what? o_O
