Were you born retarded or did that result from something like being dropped on the head? Reborn has been coming for an eternity, I doubt people would just give up now.

Agreed the Laser Fences are teh pwn

However I must point out, that picture from TS of the Cluster Missile seems to be of the missile breaking up...the compact missile MUST have been slightly more streamline.

Hah! Reborn will never be dead because Dante is just awesome! Seriously though, why don't you just check the Reborn website?

i didnt know Dante did anything like that lol

i never knew that Dante work for reborn mod

and it says on the reborn site that ppl have to wait for the update new version of reborn as there still making it

i havent had ago of reborn old mod ever

as when i got game it was in 2007

im waiting for that mod to come out

The inf beta will be out tres soon (atleast compared to teh 4 years it's taken) They are pushin fer christmas inf beta, but no promises will ever be made for dates by reborn They're doing the levels and fixing the weapons i believe they said in a update... I'm not positive, but we're getting so close it's like HEAVEN ON EARTH in the modding world... Plus Rp2's update should be around the same time i think but i'ma stay ontopic now ;D

Currently the infantry beta is polished. Testers are doing a great job. Maps with vehicles will come soon after (understand 1 to 2 months) the public release.

Took a few years to get there, but all good things comes to those who wait.
