I want to play Renegade online....I can get now to Quick match and Advanced game listing...but I don't see any server name! He say there are no servers..... checked my firewall, no problems in that, but now I found the message of the day:

:confused1:

Can somebody help me with playing this COOL game online again? :happy:

This means the name is already taken by someone else or you typed in a wrong password.

Try with another nickname and a 8 letters password. If it's not taken, it'll become yours.
