I believe the installer for APB should have it don't know which version of it that has it tho.

EDIT: opps sorry it was not the installer for the game it was for the FDS >
<http://game-maps.net/index.php?action=download&id=523> (32mbs) uncheck everything except westwood internet components(some name similar to that not 100% of the name)

PS. WRONG section please post in renegade section for help with renegade.

http://renegade.dmehosting.com/RenCD1_ISO/

Download ISO
Unzip, and mount with Daemon Tools (or burn a copy)
Install shared westwood components

Not illegal as it still requires your CD Key to install

It's illegal to use ISOs if you don't already own the original CD.

Much like how it is illegal to use a game emulator (like N64) but only if you are playing a game you don't already own.

Depends where ya live..It's good to see how many americans are brainwashed my the MPAA to believe US law strech's across the world, which tbh, doesn't.
